

CORRUGATED IRON "All corrugated looks alike to me," says the novice. "Looks alike, yes," replies the experienced builder, "but what a difference in quality!" . . . The contents of most buildings with corrugated iron roofing or siding are exceptionally valuable—factories, barns, warehouses, elevators, etc. . . . Only the best is good enough for such structures—Metallic Roofing Co.'s Corrugated Iron. . . . Absolutely free from defects—made from very finest sheets. . . . Each sheet is accurately squared, and the corrugations pressed one at a time—not rolled—giving an exact fit without waste. . . . Any desired size or gauge—galvanized or painted—straight or curved. Send us your specifications.

N.B.—Insure the safety of your grain. A Metallic Portable Corrugated Granary protects against loss by lightning, fire and vermin—rats, mice, etc. Write us to-day for information. Also ask us to mail you our new illustrated catalogue, No. 70.

WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS PLEASE MENTION THE GUIDE

It stands to reason that air so dry that it shrivels up house plants cannot be very good for the women and children who spend nearly all their time in the home. Such air irritates the throat and nasal passages, and even the lungs, causing colds, sore throats, catarrh, pneumonia and similar troubles. The furnace is to blame. It warms the air, surely, but it dries it, and cannot replace the moisture because its waterpan is not large enough, neither is it correctly placed.

The Circle Waterpan

OF THE

is a worth while waterpan—not a makeshift—encircles the whole firepot—placed where the water can best be evaporated and be evenly distributed, breathing a "Nature's" air over the whole house. In comfort and healthfulness there's all the difference in the world between the balmy air from the "Good Cheer" and the stuffy, dried-out air from the average furnace.

If you value these things investigate the "Good Cheer" thoroughly. Its construction throughout is as superior as is the Circle Waterpan. Give us your address and we'll gladly send you Booklet and full information.
