Mr. Fred Steinburg is very ill with pneumonia.

The people of this locality extend their heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah West and family of Thomsburg in the death of their beloved son, Fred, who passed away so suddenly on Wednesday last from hemorrhage of the stomach. Fred was a bright young man of twenty-two and loved by all of his young associates.

Fred West was born 31st day of November 1891 in Thomsburg. He was the beloved son of Alice and Jeremiah West. From his earliest years he was remarkably kind, exhibiting more than ordinary thoughtfulness and caution for one of his years. Although being delicate he even manifested a resigned and cheerful spirit, always looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of his faith. He died full of peace and comfort, after a long and painful illness of his earlier whom he loved and looked forward to the glorious resurrection and joyful reception in Heaven. He died February 4th, 1914.

"He is not Dead but Sleepeth."

Why should we mourn for Fred

Or regret his departure away. He's gone from the wicked arena And he is the winner to-day. He dwells with Jehovah above. Occupying a mansion of peace Prepared by our Saviour of love. Whose pleadings for us never cease.

And why should we evel at Him Whose dings are all for the best? If he took our dear brother home, To the land of perpetual rest. He sent His own Son here below Among barbarous heathens to die, That we poor sinners might know His plan of Salvation on High.

What kind and affectionate love Did our Saviour on sinners bestow? He descended from mansions above To this land of confusion below. He atoned for our sins on the tree By dying that sinners might live Free from the bondage of the foe. And all us poor sinners he save.

That blood from His hand and His side Is sufficient for all sinners to save. For us our Redeemer has died, And to us Salvation He gave. He pardoned the thief on the tree. The instant He trusted his power, Without price, this redemption is free. For all who will trust in His power.

For Fred his mother may mourn When, ere will not audit her sigh. And prepare to go to that home. And follow her son on high. His father also must prepare To meet him in mansions above. For God in His word does declare That death can be conquered by love.

His uncle and sisters may weep. For a loved one that's gone on before. May the Lord in mercy them keep And for Heaven teach them to prepare. By this they a lesson might learn That death them might soon overtake. If prepared what matter to them Death to them no terror would make.

Grim death in His stridley waits for none. The great and the small are the same. The sovereign prince on his throne. Mocks every in sight of his fame. Lord may be ready to go. At the call of Thy gracious command. Thy wonders to us do Thou show. Thy wonders we can't comprehend.

DO LONG BREATHS HURT?

Speediest Cure is Nerviline.

Ouch, that stab-like pain in the side is like a hot knife blade in the ribs! Probably got overheated - cooled too fast - now there is congestion, tightness, such soreness you can't draw a long breath. This is the beginning of Pleurisy. Pleurisy is far too serious to neglect a single instant. Quickest relief will come from a vigorous course with Nerviline. This trusty old pain reliever will fix you up in no time - will take away the congestion - make you well just as it did Mr. Samuel St. Johns, of Stamford, who says: "In running to catch a train last week I became overheated. I put up the train window and rode that way in order to get cooled off. In an hour my side was so full of pain and my breathing hurt so much that I thought I had pneumonia. I always carry Nerviline in my grip and at destination I rubbed my side thoroughly three times. The warm penetrating effect was soon noticeable and I quickly got relief. Nerviline I consider saved me from a serious illness."

Any sort of a cold can be quickly broken up with Nerviline which is a marvel for reducing inflammation, for relieving congestion in the throat and chest, for curing stitch in the side, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism. Nothing more soothing or powerful. The 50c large family size is the most economical. Small trial size 25c at dealers everywhere.

New Communion Cups

The communion of the Lord's Supper at the Tabernacle Church on Sunday was marked by a large attendance, especially of the boys and girls of the congregation. Their presence at the communion table is the result of faithful work in Sunday School and Junior League. The children's meetings were conducted during November last have also borne much fruit for the Master.

Another feature of very special interest and satisfaction to all was the introduction of the individual communion cup. This beautiful service was presented to the church by a member of the congregation.

The subject of the morning sermon by the pastor was "The Upper Feeder." An appropriate and beautifully rendered solo was given by Mrs. Grant. "O Lord Have Mercy."
