he train boy watched the quiet

m and walk up and down. When returned to his seat his eyes were ur traveller, who was afraid

y. It was a hot June day, and mers were scarce when the ther-eter climbed up in the 80's, and landscape was almost painful to ss was dull with the train

w from an inner pocket.

might miss something.

ed over.

"Drink of water ?"

ly shook her head.

He was still a young man,

with a face that seemed to bear press of much experience. He which was turned over so as lace the quiet man's seat.

ed up at the quiet man.

ain't it?" he asked.

last four years.'

the quiet man.

piece o' the road."

thing, I guess."

while myself."

aph operator."

liet man.

The train boy took his seat.

What makes you think so ?"

You're so fidgety," said the boy.

ou're afraid you're going to miss

on know all about it, then ?'

"And Hammersburg is mine miles

there." He felt of his injured arm

"Get down into the car and bring

Jack quickly clambered through

"Here," he suddenly called, "here's Jack's help below, she was quickly

"I hope to have help here very telephone pole there and cut the

he heard the rapid clicking.

The quiet man presently arose.

leave Caldwell in fifteen minutes,",

"Only a scratch, sir." He flung

"Go down the fine and tell the trainmen to report to me here at once. We must go at this work in

The boy whistled as he sped along.

"The new general manager," he shook his bandages at her and hurripatches and kept an ever-watchful

And then when night's shades eye on all that was done.

murmured, and he's a corker, too."

"Who shall I say sent me?"

"Manager Robbins."

an orderly way.

firm.

o courtrol of into their trib might be appro-ary of the Int-ting the rights denied. ssed each of mandamus on t tion of the Sec r was judicial not be review he courts. peals in reversi tioners that y of the tribe

PRIL 26, 1902

Retired.

25.-Stockhold tes Steel Corpored details of it is proposed dollars' worth eferred stock

Accident. Nugget.

25.-Frank Mille Frank Halster, to the Moo at Coney Isla

Nugget office.

YERY DAY

Modern

ddress the LE, WASH.

snow more about railroading than I crushed car, and with a steady pull gave you credit for." drew the quiet man out. "My arm is twisted," said the latter, as he Little Johnny on the Elephant. "But I feel pretty sure you know a good deal more about this particular looked about, "or I could have piece of railroading than I do," said helped myself." He gazed around the quiet man.

can tell the poor spots along the suddenly changed. He straightened line about as swell as anybody." I up, and his eyes sparkled. know there's a sharp curve just this, "We must have help at once," he side of Billetsburg that ought to be cried. "Do you know where we straightened. And there's a rough are?" piece near Bayneville that needs re- "The next stap is Caldwell, bout layin'. An' I know we're goin' to three miles ahead," answered Jack. strike the worst section of all when we pass Ketorah. They've been talk- beyond that," said the quiet man. ing about relaying it for months, but "They can make up a relief train they don't do it."

in the dark blue suit with some "Yes," said the quiet man as he and a twinge ran through him. He ity: He was a quiet man, and drew a paper from his pocket and turned to Jack. strangely restless. At every pencilled a note on the margin. n he would rise from his seat

"So you're a railroad man?" con- up my bag," he said, with swift step out on the rear platform of tinued the boy, as he studied the abruptness. If there was sufficient time stranger's appearance. would go out on the station plat-

"I'm something of a railroad the window, and a moment later man," was the reply. "What branch passed up the handbag. would you imagine me to be in ?22 er on the landscape, or on his The boy looked him over carefully. grandma-and she's all right." Alch, or on a bundle of papers he "Well," he said, "I guess you're a most as he spoke the head of the freight conductor goin' home to lady appeared above the opening, The train-boy was in the habit of spend your vacation with your and with a strong pull from the ying the passengers. He set mother. particular passenger down as an vacations with your mother?" "Me?" said the train boy. "I "There is a shady place under the don't remember that I ever had a trees on the bank there," she said as better, and wolked a way in to the e air was full of dust, and the fly- mother. I'm just a boy out of the she looked about. "Have the hurt jingle. streets. An aunt that turned me brought up there. I will do what I at in its dazzling brightness. adrift is the only relative I remem- can for them. I have had experience s train boy had stacked up his ber. Besides, I don't have any vaca- as a nurse." on a seat at one end of the tions."

The quiet man laughed aloud. " A good guess," he said, and drawn through.

He felt a little lonesome, and 'Didn't I hear you call one of the soon, said the quiet man. Then he passengers grandma?" inquired the turned to the boy. "Climb that wich wos a mitionary preacher, he ly strode up the car aisle. He d beside a seat on which sat a quiet man.

haired woman of very neat but "Yes," replied the boy. "I called three wires on the lower arm. Have ming appearance. The boy her that because she looks like the you anything to do the cutting the ri it jabs its horn in the stumkind of grandma a boy would like to with)" Anything I can get for you, have. I've had my eye on her ever "Yes, sir," replied Jack. "I've ma?" he asked in his cheery since she came aboard at Berwick, got a jackknife that will do any-She knows I'm lookin' out for her thing.' the elderly woman looked up and an' it makes her feel more comfort. The boy's leg was sore and his able. Every trip now I look out for head hummed and throbbed, and it "All right," said the boy. "You somebody-just pick 'em out, you was hard climbing, but he managed t motion to me if there's anything know, an' kind o' keep a watchful to reach the bar. A moment later need. I'll be round somewhere." eye on 'em. It makes the ride a the several wires fell, and the quiet moved along until he came to little more pleasant for them, you man had drawn a telegraph instruquiet man, who for the moment know, an' I guess it does me some ment from his bag and was sounding ed to be idle. The boy perch- good, too. An' besides, it helps to them. As Jack reached the ground self on the arm of the oppo- pass away the time." seat. The quiet man looked up The stranger looked at the boy with a new interest.

"What's your name" he asked. "Jack," said the boy, "Jack Man- he said, "and a relief train will be "Sit down, my lad," he said, as ing Ketorah," he said. "We'll next?" jointed to the seat in front of strike that tough bit of road in a minute or two. You'll notice the man as he stared at the boy.

bumpin' all right." "So you get no vacations?" said his coat aside. "Waitin' orders, He the stranger. "All work and no sir," he said. ess it's your first trip over the play must make Jack Manning a dull > boy. The train boy laughed.

"Guess I ain't 'specially dull," he said. "Besides, I'm going to get ing. It seems a little funny what may be a good, long vacation e, you know, 'cause I've been right away. This road has got the road every blessed day for through with train boys; they're all laid off. This is my last trip."

"Your last trip," echoed the stranger. Scarcely had the words work the boy had ever known. He m't I?" laughed the boy. "I left his lips when the car gave a was the manager's right hand man, to make a study of it, but'I got sudden lurch and careened. There his messenger, his lieutenant, his dcof that. When I first came on I was a savage bump or two, and then voted aid, his faithful clerk. Through a little scared, you know. 'Fraid with a mighty crash, the car rolled all these scenes of suffering and toil Jump the track or the trestles, over. High arose a chorus of shrill the boy never faltered. The old thing. An' I used to listen shricks and the air was filled with woman got at him and bandaged his

e old clumpety-clumping until it blinding dust. made songs for me, an' after When the train boy got back his le there was a kind of song for dazed senses he found himself crawl- ed back to the side of the quiet man. ing up the bank of the ditch. There The quiet man was a man of steel, ou're something of a poet," said was a bump on his head, a cut who, with one arm dangling by his across his ear, and one of his ankles side, gave his orders, and sent desguess not," laughed the boy. was wrenched. He looked around as a train boy will knock the he wiped his grimy face. out of a fellow 'bout as quick | The train had been ditched and it was a bad wreck. Ahead he could fallen and a merciful coolness aps you are right," said the see the white cloud of steam that man. "I was a train boy for told of the engine's position. The tender was piled above it, and be-" cried the boy. He laughed hind that came the baggage and exthe idea amused him. "I don't press cars and the four passenger You was much good at it," cars, crushed against one another or "You haven't got enough lying battered and shattered along the ditch like so many broken toys.

" said the quiet man with a "Jack !" called a voice. The quiet that faintly echoed the boy's, man, with his head and shoulders I't keep the job long. I was projecting from a window, was callglad, I remember, when I was ing to him. "Here, Jack, give me a ed to brakeman, and still * * 3 His Last Trip.

something." say," cried the boy, "you The boy mounted the side about to leave and the track re- air, particler wen he is foragin for to Dawson. pairers and the wrecking crew were carimels, but he is reely a child of the boy and gripped his shoulder. "Well, my lad," he said, with a dry sob, "we have done what we could, please God." He looked at the lad. "You have found me a hard master," he said.

"Come," said the quiet man, "we can go now." He leaned on Jack's shoulder as they walked toward the train. He was tired and faint. "And remember." he added, with a little smile, "that vacation is indefinitely

Master Jack a little brokenly.

"All right, sir," said Jack. -W. R. Rose in Cleveland Plain

Enhlents is the biggest thing wich and gave a little groan. Then it is in the wurld, but the tagger it is "Perhaps," said the boy. "Guess seemed to Jack as if his manner more stripy and the giraft he has got a mity long neck wich Providence has giv him so that he can look over the ephlent. Ephlents is found in ol parts of the wurld if you have enugh munny for to get in, but is natifs of Ilnov. Uncle Ned, wich has been in Injy and evrywere, he says one time he was huntin ephlents in the jingles of Peory, an there was a big feller with tucks 20 feet long, an it took after uncle Ned, the ephlent did. Uncle Ned he run as hard as he cud, an he thruw a way his gun an his game bag an his coat an his shoes an evry natural result. thing wich he had but at last h was so tired he fel down and give up an got reddy for to hav the ephlents tucks thrusted thru him. Then the ephlent it stoped and looked at him a wile out of its eyes, an then it put all its feets to gather an turnd round an round like on a pivvet, and then it stude on it's hed, an bime by it opened its mowth reel wide. Uncle for thirty days. laughed again. Then he added, "I She was a brave lady, and though Ned he see how things was, so he suppose you are glad to spend your she trembled a little her voice was arose up an stuck his hed in the ephlent's mowth. Then the ephlent got up an bowed, much as to say he felt

But if I was chase by a ephlent I wuld land him one on the point of the jaw, wes; in deed, Ide nock him out like he was no boddy only but jest ole Corbett. But Mister Pitchel, says the only thing which can kanock out a ephlent is the ri nosy rose, for muck of the ephlents belly and makes him grunt like distent thunder. But Billy, thats my brother, he says gowging is no fair.

My sisters yung man he says once there was a ephlent wich was a sho, and it was loos in the sho yard, and it had the bigest tucks wich was ever see! One day a man come in the sho yard and the ephlent it chased him. The man he run an hollerd to the After the eph it had stop fooling the "An engine with doctors will man he sed to the keeper : You mus xcuse me for given you so much by over. He looked out of the win-made up at once at Hammersburg." trubble, but this is the first time I dow as he spoke. "We are just pass- Yes, sir," said Jack. "What have ever see a beest wich carrys his teeths out side his mowth and his "Are you hurt?" cried the quiet tung a hanging to the end of his nose and I dident kno wether it would be

and the second relief train was "Wel, he has got a sort of military materials is the best that ever came at work, the quiet man turned to peece, an if you had stood your ground, and give him a good look at your face he wuld have fled in terrer from the spot !"

If I was a eph I rather be a eegle wich sores in to the bloom pirian an G. WHITE-FRASER .- M. Can. Soc. fixes his ey on to the sun and "You are just my style," said screems til tirents tremble! Hop todes is worty, an the goos it has lether feets, an Uncle Ned says eals is the states men of the sea, but eagles is the shine of each patriots divotion! And thats wy I say Gorge Washington was the fore mast man of his time and a fo to progres! -Ambrose Rierce in Examiner.

P. B. Butter at Barrett & Hull's.

Expert Coming.

Special to the Daily Nugget Paris, France, April 25 .- A syndicate operating under the name of the Metal Extracting Company is sending an expert to the Yukon territory for the purpose of examining various properties with the view of a heavy investment of French capital.

Choice Rex Hams. Ames Mer. Co.

To Corner Eggs.

pecial to the Daily Nugget. Chicago, April 25 - Swift & Co. Armour & Co., and other large capitalists are making strenuous efforts to secure control of the egg supply of the United States. Unprecedented high prices next winter will be the Hay, oats and provisions of all kinds at Barrett & Hull's. Rock bot-

Why Not?

Special to the Daily Nugget. Bloomington, Ill., April 25. - An agreement was entered into today under which none of two thousand and with a strong pull from the lifted its poboscus and got down on employes of the Chicago & Alton quiet man's sound arm and with lifted its poboscus and got down on employes of the Chicago & Alton to its kanees close to Uncle Ned and shop at Bloomington will eat meat

> * Regina Hotel..

J. W. Wilson, Prop. and Mgr.

Dawson's Leading Hotel

American and European Plan.
Cuisine Unexcelled, Newly Refitted Throughout—All Modern Improvements. Rooms and board by the day, week or month.

2nd Ave. and York St. Dawson

come with the setting of the sun, peace or war." The sho man he sed: The Nugget's stock of job printing

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAWYERS PATTULLO & RIDLEY - Advocates Notaries, Conveyancers, etc. Offices Rooms 7 and 8 A. C. Office Bldg.

SURVEYORS.

C E : M. Am. Inst. E. E. : D. T. S. 'Phone 106b. Cor. Church and Third avenue.

CHAS. S. W. BARWELL, D.L.S., C.E., DOMINION LAND SUR-VEYOR. Office, rooms 13 and 14 Bank Building. 'Phone 170, Dawson, Y.T.

: Signs and Wall Paper ...ANDERSON BROS...

.......

..................... EMIL STAUF

. REAL ESTATE, MINING AND FINANCIAL BROKER Agent for Harper & Ladue cownsite Co-Harper's Addition, Menzie's Addition The Imperial Life Insurance Company Collections Promptly Attended to

...J. J. O'NEIL...

N. C. Office Bldg. King St

MINING EXPERT

Quartz mines examined and reported on. Correspondence solicited.

Address, - General Delivery, Dawson *******

Pacific Coast Steamship

> Affords a Complete Coastwise service, Covering

Alaska, Washington California. Oregon and Mexico.

Our boats are manned by the most skillful navigators. Exceptional Service the Rule ...

All Steamers Carry Both Freight and Passengers

Acceptation and the second sec Just in Over the Ice Two Hundred Adelina Pattis, El Ecudors.

Benj. Franklin, La Africanos, Henry Clays, Magnificos. Henry Upman's, Bock & Co.

Look Out for the CAMEOS.

TOWNSEND & ROSE, Importers

Traveling Made Easy

Nothing wears a person out like a bad fitting pair of shoes, especially if he has much walking to do.

and Styles are the Latest.

We keep only the Up-to-date Lines. Our Lasts

A. T. & T. COMPANY

WE HAVE A NICE LINE

WHICH WE ARE OFFERING

SPECIAL PRICES

SEE US

glad when I left that job to be lift. I seem to be pinned down by