A Desperado Uses a Kulfe and a Pistol—Shot.the Wrong Person.

A Durango, Col., despatch says: At a ball in the Blue Mountains, July 24th, a terrible tragedy occurred. While dancing was going on merrily and all were enjoying themselves, a tough character named Tom Roach insisted on dancing. He was drunk and armed with a knife and a six-shooter. He was told that the sets were all full and was requested not to interfere with the persons already on the floor, but he declared he would dance, and took hold of a gentlemen and attempted to remove him from the floor. This was resented, and the parties became engaged in a souffle, when a yoning man named Frank H. Hyde, a son of a Mancos merchant, attempted to end the disturbance. Roach turned on Hyde viciously and stabbed him with a knife, inflicting dangerous wounds. Roach left the room but continued to act in a disorderly manner. A cowboy named Billy McCord tried to pacify Roach by going out where he was and talking to him. This seemed to enrage him more than ever, and drawing his gun he killed McCord on the spot. By this time the excitement was becoming intense, and as no one was armed the people were almost panie-stricken. A boy slipped away to a house near by and securing a Winchester returned to the school-house. He took aim and fired, but missed Roach land killed Mrs. Walton, an estimable woman living in the community. In the excitement Roach left the place, since which time he has not been seen. The entire community are searching for him.

A PEER OF THE REALW.

A PEER OF THE REALM. Question Settled as to the Heir to an Scotland yard officer. She is now the thirteenth wife of Mormon Elder Jenking of the Cards to day decided that Kandall Mowbray Thomas Berkeley had established his claim to the honors and dignities of the Earl of Berkeley and Viscount Dursley. The claimant alleged that the male legitimate issue of the fifth Earl Berkeley, who died in 1810, was extinct, and that he, being the eldest male heir of the fourth Earl, was entitled to the peerage. Opposed to this claim was the claim of Francis William Fitzhardinge Berkeley, Baron Fitzhardinge, who asserted that the fifth Earle of Berkeley had married a woman named Mary Cole in 1785, but, acting under advice, a further marriage ceremony was performed in 1796. Subsequent to the death of the fifth Earla question arose as to the legitimacy of the issue born prior to 1796, and the House of Lords in 1811 decided that the eldest son, who was born in 186, was not entitled to the succession. The decision given to day upholds the decision given in 1811, and consequently Mr. Berkeley will hereafter be a peer of the realm. The House directed that Baron Fitzhardinge be non-suited.

Women Wanted

Belween the ages of fifteen and forty-five. Must have pale, sallow complexions, no appetite, and be hardly able to get about. All answering this description will please apply for a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; take it regularly, according to directions, and then note the generally improved condition. By a thorough course of self-treatment with this valuable remedy, the extreme cases of nervous prostration and debility peculiar to women, are apply for a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; take it regularly, according to directions, and then note the generally improved conditiou. By a thorough course of self-treatment with this valuable remedy, the extreme cases of nervous prostration and debility peculiar to women, are radically cured. A written gurrantee to this end accompanies every bottle.

A despatch from Montreal says: The operators and other officials in the employ of the Great Northweeter Telegraph Company in this city are greatly exercised just now over a well authenticated report that a further reduction of ten per cent. in salaries will be made in the very near future. They hear that the reduction has already taken place in Toronto and Hamilton, and that the economical blast—one man called it "blasted economy"—will soon strike Montreal.

Police statistics are said to show that there are 130,000 panpers in Naples.

"An who is this?" asked Aunt Clara, pointin to the picture of a chubby child in skirts. "That," said Robby, who had been wearing trousers for some time, "is me when I was a girl."—Roseleay.

Chatham farm Operators' Wages Cut Down.

ronce statistics are said to show that there are 130,000 paupers in Naples.

"An who is this?" asked Aunt Clara, pointin to the picture of a chubby child in skirts. 'That,' said Robby, who had been wearing trousers for some time, "is me whea I was a girl."—Roseleaj. I was a girl."—Roseleaf.

William Plummer, of Chatham, farm hand, was arrested a week ago at St. Clair, Mich., on a charge of forging several notes, amounting to over $1,000. On his arrest he was taken to Port Huron by the sheriff, and, refusing to cross quietly to the Canadian side, extradition proceedings were begun.

| The contract of the contract impossible, and the men made a dash upor the sentry, trusting that in the confusion which would ensue they might make their way into the barracks. As they rushed upon the sentries they fired a volley and some of the soldiers fell wounded. The other sentries stood firm and answered the volley from the attacking party with a fusilade from their muskets. A regular battle of short duration followed, a number on both sides being wounded. In the meantime the officers stationed at the barracks called the troops to arms, and the attackers were soon surrounded and compelled to surender. A court martial will be convenient. But No Horror of the Interest and the Haunts Maude.

A St. Louis despatch says: Maude Esterbrooke, at one time a ribbon clerk of a Jarge retail dry goods establishment here, but who is heir to a fortune in Leeds, England, has been found in Salt Lake City by a Scotland yard officer. She is now the thirteenth wife of Mormon Elder Jenking of that city, and is so satisfied with Mormonfism that she refused to accompany Inspector Watkins back to Leeds to claim her inheritance. She eloped from Vienna with an attache of the English Legation, who committed suicide on the way to America by jumping overboard. The girl drifted west with a traveller, became a dry goods clerk here, went to St. Paul as governess for a Rhode Island family, and then went to Salt Lake. ree soon surrounded and compelled to sur-nder. A court martial will be convened try them, and it is believed they will all e shot.

LATER.—A report from Barcelona justifies he belief that the affair was a genuine evolutionary attempt on the part of Reublicans. The persons arrested are rederal Republicans.

DOWN ON FERDINAND. English Sentiment Against the Proposed Royal Match, English Sentiment Against the Proposed Royal March.

A London cable says The rumored intention to marry Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania into the British Royal family. Les aroused such caustic and unfriendly comment in England that it is possible that the scheme will fall through, although it is said the Queen has not regarded the proposition unfavorably. The throne of Roumania, in wealth and resources the leading Balkan State, would be a comfortable addition to the Royal seats occupied by descendants of the Queen, but harsh criticisms of the descrition by the Prince of Mile. Vacaresco are yet too prevalent for the arrangement to be popular at this time. The English people hate a jilt. It is said that a hint of the situation has been given to King Charles of Roumania, and that his love-sick nephew will not be led to the sacrifice until a more convenient season. In the meantime Queen Elizabeth, the romantic "Carmen Sylva," who encouraged the Crown Prince's attentions to her maid of honor, is recovering from the illness caused by the family jar to which it led, and Mile.

Yacaresco, has been sent to Rome.

Brains a Fireman And Tries To Put th

and that the number of professions accessible for women be increased; that women be allowed to take part in political affairs; that all Austrian subjects of age and in the enjoyment of their rights as such, without consideration for the amount of taxes they pay, and regardless of their position and sex, shall be entitled to equal and direct parliamentary suffrage.

The Cars Left the Track.

A Bellaire, O., despatch says: At about 10 o'clock this morning passenger train No. 4 on the Bellaire, Zaneville & Cincinnati Narrow Gauge Railroad left the track three miles south of Bellaire, two cars being overturned and dragged some distance by the engine. The seriously injured are: John Morris, baggage master, hurt internally, badly bruised and will probably die; Chas. McElroy, leg broken and otherwise bruised; Wm. McElroy, head hurt and internal injuries; John Irwin, of Bethel, Ohio, head crushed and scalp injured; G. P. Wilcox, of York, Pa, head badly injured. To-night-all except Morris are reported to be in a fair way of recovery.

vay of recovery. Whereat There Are Many Tears.

New York Herald: She (after the engagement)—Oh, but George! Do you drink?

He (surprised and embarrassed)—Well—thank you, I don't care if I do take something.

thing.

The man that never committed a folly never appreciated wisdom.

Henry Labouchere, the famous free lance London editor and member of Parliament, is a little fat man whom a correspondent who recently saw him describes as sitting in a leather chair, twiddling a grizzled beard.

'He is a millionaire, a Radical, an insuffer, able wag. He has an exuberant animosity for all governments; ie is the had boy of the House of Commons; the fat, licensed, wicked little jester of the English press."

END OF A VENDETTA

STRLIME FAITH.

Company Organized to Lend Umbrella to Subscribers A New York despatch says: The United States Umbrella Providing Company has filed articles of incorporation. The object of the company is to lend umbrellas to subscribers at a moderate cost. The subscriber company is to lend umore as ere at a moderate cost. The subscriber take an umbrella with him wherever he and is responsible for its safekeeping, capital stock is 1,500 shares at $100 h. The incorporators are Louis Cohen, nuel Ramesfelder, Emil Weiger, George Weigert and Samuel Baum. The company of the principal state of the company of the principal state of the company of the principal state. samuel Ramesfelder, Emil Weiger, George H. Weigert and Samuel Raum. The company will have offices in all the principal cities of the United States. A subscribed in subscription card, and get an umbrella in Jersey City and turn it in to the company's office in Chicago if he has no further use for it.

A BIG CATCH.

A Story that Beats the Product of Our Own

Fishermen.

A Panama despatch says: An enormous shark was caught in the harbor here last week. It measured nearly 24 feet in length, and was four feet in diameter at its greatest width. The flesh was cut off, and the dorsal bone is to be preserved. The skin is about half an inch thick. The monster is what is known as the boneless shark. It was captured by a harpoon thrown by a firemen on the steamer Bolivar while in the vicinity of Tobaga island, and the steamer was completely turned round and round by

What Cured Him?

What Cured Him?

Disturbed, disturbed; with pain oppressed, No sleep, no rest; what dreadful pest. Such terrors thus ensnared him?

Dyspepsia all night, all day,
It really seemed had come to stay;
Pray, guess you, then, what cured him?

It was Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That is the great cure for Head-ache, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Kidney Disease, Liver Complaint and General Debility. An inactive Liver means poisoned blood; Kidney disorder means poisoned blood; Constipation means poisoned blood; Constipation means poisoned blood; Constipation means poisoned blood; Constipation means poisoned blood; The great antidote for impure blood is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Acting directly upon the affected organs, restores them to their normal condition. The "Discovery" is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

The First Step.

New York Weekly: Groom—Ah! Non New York Weekly: Groom—An: Non of that!

Minister—I was only going to kiss the bride.

Groom—Oh, I know that's customary; but I won't have it, and that's all there is about it!

Mme. Modjeska will open her next sea-son's tour in London, Canada, on September 21, and will follow in Toronto and Montreal.

Night Clerk—How does it seem to be hotel waitress? New Girl—It seems as if was maid to order.—Buffalo Express. A soldier wrote home for a supply of cash Appended to the letter was the following post-surity; "I felt so ashamed at having asked you to send me ten francs, that I ran to the post office to get my letter back, Unfortunately it had gone."—Recit Orul. FOR MONEY AND TITLE.

seizure.

"Wal, Hiram, if this don't beat all! The old way for doctors was 'kill er cure,' but here I've found a piece in this here newspaper where a doctor offers 'cash er cure,' It's fer catarrh! I wish we had it—I'd like to try him! Jest listen, Hiram! 'The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer a reward of $500 for any case of catarrh, which they cannot cure.' That beats all lotteries hollow! The medicine costs 50 cents—your catarrh is cured, er you get $500! Where's my hat? I'm going right ver to neighbor Brown's, to show known as I'm going right wer to neighbor Brown's, to show known as I'm going right were wanted to get within 'tore, but if it is ''w sill er cure,' was I'm going right were wanted to get within 'tore, but if it is ''w sill er cure,' was I'm going right was I'm going right were wanted to get within 'tore, but if it is ''w sill er cure,' was I'm going right were wanted to get within 'tore, but if it is ''w sill er cure,' was I'm going right were wanted to get within 'tore, but if it is ''w sill er cure,' was I'm going right was I'm going right were wanted to get within 'tore, but if it is ''w sill er cure,' was I'm going right was I'm goin which they cannot cure.' That beats at lotteries hollow! The medicine costs 50 cents—your catarrh is cured, er you get $500! Where's my hat? I'm going right over to neighbor Brown's, to show him. I never wanted to get within ten foot of him before, but if it is the cure of his catarrh, I guess I can stand it onc't." Sold by druggists.

A Parisian Beauty.

For a number of years Mme. Gantrau has posed as the unrivalled professional beauty of Paris. She is said to closely resemble Djane de Potitiers, and it is the prayer of every rising artist that she will sit to him for a portrait and thus bring his name to public notice. Her figure and her nuque are regarded as beyond any comparison, beautiful; therefore no salon is considered complete till a portrait of the fair madame hangs on its walls. This spring's exhibition was no exception to its many forerunners, and Gustave Courtois pictured her in a snow-white ball dress that heightened, if possible, her radiant loveliness.—Boston Beacon.

Threatened to Fine Her, Chicago Tribune: "That's exactly what came here for this evening, Miss Milred." The young man laid aside his hat, ane and gloves. "That's exactly what came for" he repeated, possessing himelf of her hand; "I want you for my wife."

"You might have saved yourself the trouble, Mr. Fairball," exclaimed the girl, taking her hand away. "I shall never marry you."

"Another word of back talk like that," said the young baseball umpire, quietly but firmly passing his arm about her waist, "will cost you $25."

Would Die Rather. Epoch: "Miss Hijee didn't sing to-day," remarked a friend to the leader of the choir of the Church of the Offertory.
"No, she has resigned."
"I thought she had a good place. What was the trouble" he trouble?"

the was offended about the selection of them which she had to lead off last ay, and vowed she'd resign sooner than t, and she did."

"It began: 'I have been young and now Made the Moon Blush. Washington Star: "Do you know," he aid in a low tone, "that I feel very narrow-inded when I come to see you?"
"Why?" She breathed the question very, very gently.
"Because then I am a man of one nigh sing it, and she did."

"That's odd. What was the anthem?"

dear."

And the good, sensible old moon, who has seen so much of that sort of thing, made all possible haste to retire behind the nearest cloud. —The sluggard usually prefers going to he dogs rather than the ant.

It is rarely a man begins the pursuit of his health in earnest till he finds it is run own.

The Shah of Persia is an enthusiast with the kodak, and takes very good pictures with it when he condescends to do so. Wherever he goes he is accompanied by a court photographer who takes views of benind, that is their business. It is a free country, with equal laws and opportunities for all, with no obstructions for those of any race or cline or religion, and our only motto as, May the best man win.—New York Herald.

When You Feel Out of Sorts it Will S You Right Again.

Every woman has evil hours when she too restless to keep still and too dull an heavy to do anything. She says she in nervous. Her color loses its freshness; he too restless to keep still and too dull and heavy to do anything. She says she is nervous. Her color loses its freshness, her eyes their brightness, her expression all its delicacy. She looks a coarises and less intelligent individual. Now the latest remedy proposed for this distemper is the air bath. Lock your doors if you would test it the next time the blues declare themselves, and disrobe entirely, taking an air bath, in the sunshine if possible, for five or ten minutes. This will act as a total alterative to the oppressed, restless state of the nervous system. It does better than a water bath, which, if one has already been taken in the morning, cannot be always repeated with perfect safety. After the air bath dress again slowly, doning conjuletely fresh linen and some crisp and rather new gown. The freshness of external attire is infallibly soothing. Another suggestion worth careful noting when you are feeling and looking dull-eyed and ugly bears indirectly upon the value of massage. Take your hair down and moisten the scalp thoroughly with some good but harmless hair-dressing preparation. Then, with the tips of the fingers, work the moisture, well into the scalp, and comb the hair out afterward with slow, soft, regular movements.—New York Recorder.

Bow to Advertise.

Detroit News: "People who kick about advertising not paying," said he, while the secaks were sizzing, "are those who don't know how to do ite. The first requisite is to have a good thing towell; then tell people about it so that they will believe it. The having of the saleable stuff is not advertising, of course, but if you don't have it the 'ad' will be a failure. The secret of the business is to have an air of truth about your ad. Convince the people that you are telling ble truth. Desire let them think an 'ad' is merely a tray, but a good honest invitation to buy something of value. Those 'ads' that start out as an entertaining bit of reading matter and end up with recommendation to use Uncle Sam's shipplasters for pecuniary debility make the reader mod.

Banasias Pattmeny.

Epoch: Attorney (to witness)—You know this man!
Witness—Wes, sir.
Attorney—What is his reputation for truth and veracity!
Witness—Wesl, he writes obituary verses.

"No, Bobby," said his mother, "one How to Advertise.

"No, Bobby," said his mother, "one piece of pie is quite enough for you." it's funny," responded Bobby, with an air. "You say you are anxious for me to air. "You say you are anxious for me to learn to eat properly, and yet you won't even give me a chance to practise." Many a man who has had the key to the

ndition to discover the keyhole

They Are Not "Parasites."

They Are Not "Parasites."

Professor Goldwin Smith, with an audagity which imperils his reputation as an historical critic, declares that the Hebrews have suffered persecution for many centuries. They come in the content of the word "parasite" which will properly include that "peculiar people. The suff that kills or curse; "MI ment that it is not true. There is no definition of the word "parasite" which will properly include that "peculiar people. The suff the bolds which will properly include that "peculiar people. He is a lead beat who cajoles the giver of a feast out of an invitation, easts at his host's expense and repays his indebtedness by flattery.

Mr. Smith illustrates by remarking that the Hebrews "insert themselves into the homes of other nations for the purpose of gain, while they retain a marked and repellant nationality of their own."

1. The Hebrew is falsely stigmatized as a parasite because he is a hardy, thrifty fellow and in every sense self-supporting. So far as this country is concerned, he asks no special legislation and seeks no favors, but takes his chances with the rest of na. He generously supports. hospitals of his own, and never sense. He has his faults and eccentricities, but in this respect he is not unlike the people of any other nationality, including ourselves.

2. As to their "inserting themselves" into this or that nationality for purposes of gain, why, we also are in the "inserting" business whenever an opportunity for profit shows itself. The man who does not buy and sell for gain is a human curiosity whose capture would make the fortune of a Barnum, and the man who wouldn't go to any part of the earth, from the gold mines for the order the form the side of the home-from the dairy whose capture would make the fortune of a Barnum, and the man who wouldn't go to any part of the earth from the gold mines for the tother is to that not any part of the earth from the gold mines for the profit of the Class Distinctions in America.

Mrs. De Work-I have trained my elder Ars. De Work—I have trained my eldest daughter into a thorough housekeeper. There is nothing she does not know. Miss De Fright—What a nice, handy maiden aunt she will make for your other daugh-ters' children.

If they've not yet been to college,
They are going by and-bye,
To shake the tree of knowledge,
Though its branches touch the sky
For all their Greek and Latin,
And poring over books,
With faces smooth as satin,
They'll keep their dainty looks. Do you want a happy comrade, In study or in fun!
Be sure you'll find her quickly
'Mid the girls of Ninety-one.
She'll keep that bright head stea
Unharmed in any whiri,
And not a lad will love her less
Bocause she is a girl.

-Margaret E. Sangster, in Harper's Young Per The Way They Greet You. In CHICAGO.

In Windville's wild and wooly stree
If you a maiden greet
And ask her how she feels she'll say:
"I'm in it with both feet."

"I'm in it with both fock."
IN BOSTON,
When Boston people meet you on
Their lovely Common green
They greet you very warmly, thus:
"Well, well, how have yoou bean i"
IN THE SUNNY SOUTH.
Down South they swear by good old rye,
The stuff that kills or curse;
"The style of greeting there is this:
"Well, Colonel, sah, what's yours!"
IN BHOOKLY, SHAPE, SHAP

THIS ARTICLE REMOVED

of
The rest of us are all hard workers, with our weather eyes open for the chance to make a dollar. We are a frightfully busy people—or perhaps we had better say a gloriously busy people—so busy that we haven't time to grumble at Beattie for keeping our streets day and his own on Sunday, which is a most convenient arrangement. But it is a fact that he takes care the animals shall have at least one day's rest in seven, which is both prudent and humane.

The reporter's transcript of his Sunday morning's sermon has to be in his hands by dirty, and can spare only an hour or two a day in which to curse the McKinley Bill. The Hebrews are in the swim with us. So are the Germans and the Irishmen and the Italians. If any of them can forge ahead of us, that is our business. If any of them lag behind, that is their business. It is a free country, with cond laws of the same of the

has to be in his hands by morning's sermon has to be in his nands by 7 o'clock on Monday morning, when he carefully revises the MS. Whether he makes any provision or stipulation for the shorthand writer's rest day does not tran-

WHAT LONDON TEACHES US. Paved Streets That Stand the Heaviest

Paved Streets That Stand the Meaviest Trame.

London will teach you that it is possible for the streets of the busiest city in the world to be kept scrupulously clean. It will teach Americans, too, that a city can be paved so as to withstand the inroads of No one will ever pretend to deny that certain individuals are superior to certain other individuals in acquirement, in intellect, in goodness; but when it comes to planting whole classes on platforms and stages of eminence, the idea is constantly to be reprobated, and no American mother can allow her children to make such distinctions, uncorrected. Such classification of our citizens into upper and middle and lower tiers, once well established in the popular mind, would help to make it easy for the next step—a monarchy upheld among these classes by the oppression and taxation and resulting ignorance of the people. The children of the ordinary mother in America may in such an order of things by possibility be found near the throne; they may, by more probability, be found with the peasantry, or with the armies that will keep the peasantry or with the armies that will armie the word of the word of the word of the word of the word o one will ever pretend to deny that who have been accustomed to heighten their charms by the wiles of the toilet table had better keep away from the Transvaal. They would not be long in Pretoria before they got into serious trouble. The Second Chamber of the Volksraad has passed and sent up to the First Chamber a masks and disguises bill which will press severely upon ladies—and gentlemen, too—who are not physically what they seem. Whoever wears a wig, for instance, and is caught in the dreadful act, may be fined $10, or sent to prison fora fortnight. An exception will, perhaps, he made in favor of actors and actresses while they are on the stage. Presumably, it will also be an offence to wear a mask or go about on stilts; but those are amusements in which people do not want to indulge every day. With all the details of this highly moral bill we are not familiar; but if it prohibits wigs it must surely condemn that artistic heightening of the complexion to which so many ladies are—perhaps erroneously—supposed to owe something. The Puritan fathers of the Transvaal may as well do the thing thoroughly while they are about it. Temperance Exhibit.

Temperance will have a great exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition. Temperance drinks, temperance literature and temperance hospitals will be features of the display.

Installation Secretary Hunst received application for space for the exhibit yesterday. Miss Josephins E. Nicholls, of Indianapolis, sade the application on behalf of the Woman's Christian Temperance Publication Association. Nor will the exhibit be restricted to temperance subjects only. A model creche will be established, with nurses and cribs for the care of children whose parents will leave them for a few hours; the hospital will be fitted for the care of emergency cases, the treatment to be without the use of alcoholie stimulants. A large pavilion will be fitted up with fountains, flags and banners from thirty-eight national unions. The entire display is to be the result of female labor and will be most elaborate in all its details. Chicago Daily News.

Mrs. De Work—I have trained my eldest

When the first vessel completed the passage of the then new Eric Canal, in 1825, there being no such thing as a -telegraph line in these days, the news was communicated to New York and to Buffale by cannons placed within learing of each other all the way along from Albany to each of the other cities. The signal was passed along in this way from Albany to New York City and back again to Albany in 58 minutes. The experiment was a costly one, but was a success in every particular. Telegraphing With Cannons.

He—I hear Jimmy So-and-so has been poisoning you against me. She, earnestly— It isn't so. He has treated me to ice cream, and that's all there is to the poison "These are my last sad writes," said the country editor as he finished a notice of suspension.—Buffolo Enquirer.