Mr. Stokes, a Well-known Tilbury East Farmer, Names Them.

He Says the People Have Been Deceived and He Will Vote Against the Government.

Mr. Stokes, who sends The Planet the following letter, is a prominent and prosperous farmer in Tilbury East who has hitherto always voted the Liberal ticket. Like a large number of others, the government's broken pledges have been too much for him, and he proposes to use his vote to help in punishing those who have so grossly deceived the farmers of Can-

MR. STOKES' LETTER. To the Editor,-If the electors stand where they stood four years ago, they must believe now just what they did then. They stood against extravagance, against protection, against railway subsidies. The people voted railway subsidies. The people voted for economy and business-like administration, for tariff for revenue, for reduction of the public debt. After the Reformers attained power, what did they do? They said it is a growing time, and more money must be spent-exactly what the Reformers denounced the Tories for... They said the public debt must be reduced. The very next year they announced an increase of the public debt of some ten millions of dollars. They stated that they would cut down the expenditure by three or four, millions of dollars annually. They promised they would give the country revenue tariff; put an end to corruption, reduce the exan end to corruption, reduce the ex-penditure, stop the increase of public debt, keep public land for actual setdebt, keep public land for actual settlers. If any party ever sickened the electors they were the Liberals of 1896. I, as a Liberal, am ashamed of them. They said the country could be carried on with an expenditure of forty millions; they have increased it to fifty millions. They have voted over nine millions of acres to railways, They were to protect us farmers against the extortions of the manufacturers for the necessities of the farmer, as fence wire, nails, implements, coal oil, bindew twine. The farmers of Kent-are paying more than farmers of Kent-are paying more than these articles can be bought for in the United States. I am going to vote

ANNIVERSARY SUPPER.

The splendid and successful anniversary supper and entertainment of the Park St. Methodist Church was held last evening and was largely atheld last evening and was largely attended. From six to eight o'clock a sumptuous repast was served in the Sunday school hall, under the auspices of the ladies of the church. At its conclusion the guests thronged the church, which was appropriately and delicately decorated with ferns and flowers, and enjoyed a delightful sacred program. The large choir, under the clever direction of Miss Elda Idle, sang three excellent anthems, in which the solo parts were acceptably taken by Misses Idle and Weese. Splendid solos were also rendered by Claire Montieth, with violin obligate by Henry R. McCaw, Miss Pearl White and Miss Allie Humphrey. J. B. Rankin, Q. C., occupied the chair and delivered a capital address, while Rev. Dr. Saunders, Rev. Dr. Hannon and Rev. H. W. Locke contributed in a similar manner. tended. From six to eight o'clock Mr. W.
