Epworth Leaguers Did Shocking Things at Wallaceburg Say the Papers There

Referring to the oyster supper ex-cursion of the Chatham Epworth Leaguers of the Methodist church the Wallaceburg Herald-Record prints the following bit of editorial sarcasm:

"If the young ladies or gentlemen—pardon the terms—from Chatham, who appropriated the salt shakers at the oyster supper on Monday night, will kindly return the vessels they are quite welcome to keep the contents. By their actions the application of the saline crystals might be beneficial to them."

When asked concerning the alleged thefts, members of the Park St. Methodist League, who conducted the excursion, professed ignorance, although it is probable some investigation may be made by the

in the city yesterday.

"The Planet's recent suggestion for the formation of a Game Protective Association in Kent County is a splendid one," said Mr. Wigle, "and I'd like to see it carried through at an early date. They have such associations in Essex, Middlesex and Toronto and they are doing splendid work. I'm sure Mr. W. J. Winnett, of the Middlesex Association, would forward all the information required for the formation of your associafor the formation of your associa-tion and, if I could be of assistance in any way, I'm at your service."

Continuing, Game Warden Wigle said the law against the illegal trap-ping of musk rat would be rigorous-ly enforced and a warning should be issued against the destroying of their houses.

BUSY DOVER

Past Year Has Been One of Advancement-Splendid Drainage Works Built

Reeve Corey Purser, of Dover, was in the city to-day and, in response to The Planet's enquiry a sto how, things were going In that prosperous township, said:

"The past has been one of the bus-"The past has been one of the busiest seasons I have known. In drainage matters we have made great progress. Some of the new works are already completed, some nearly finished, others going on and some proposed. Ov. $40,000 worth of drainage improvements have been inaugurated this year, besides between $1,000 and $2,000 worth of dredging and repairing roads from washouts resulting from the spring freshets. Every drain needs a court of revision, so, when you begin to deliberate on an equal assessment to all, here comes the difficult work for ifficult work fo

"We do our very level best in reg-"We do our very level best in reg-ulating the assessments. Sometimes where there is much dispute we walk over the territory and view it for ourselves. We find by so doing that we can give the best satisfaction. Of course, we can't please everybody in assessment matters. The Council has not been born vet who can poslibly do that, but, taking the amount of work into consideration, we have had very few complaints."

"What are municipal prospects for January ?' Mr. Purser was asked.
"I believe the Council are all going to run again, with the exception of Mr. Boyer."

"What new candidates are men-"I have heard some good men men

Canadian Doctor Says He Operated en Geary Girl to Save Life.

Boston, Dec. 2.—Testimony that M. E. Hunt had told her that when any of the patients died he cut, up their bodies, was offered yesterday by Mrs. Harrison Stanford of Philadelphia, who of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, in connection with the death of Susanna Geary, the Cambridge chorus girl.

Dr. McLeod, taking the stand on his own behalf, made a sweeping denial of he charges against him. He said or the morning of Sept. 14 he was called to the house in Roxbury occupied by a woman, who he was later told was Mrs. Dean, to examine a young woman. He told Mrs. Dean that an immediate operation was necessary to save the girl's life. Complying with the request of Mrs. Dean, he called Dr. Peters by telephone and secured his assistance The operation was performed upon the girl to save her life, he said. The jury retired to consider the testimony at 4.45 o'clock yesterday. Judge Stevens instructed the jury to seal the verdict should one be reached last night and present it at the court to-day.

All the Jewellery Recovered. Woodstock, Dec. 2.—That Walter Dixon, arrested by the Buffalo police is the man wanted for the theft of jewels of the value of $5,000 from John White's home here is now established. Mr. White and his daughter, Mrs. Harding, who are in Buffalo, wired yesterday that they have identified al the jewellery found on the prisoner. With the ring and diamond sunburst, recovered at Simcoe, it includes every, thing stolen from the White home.

Killed By & Bull. Galt, Dec. 2 .- Wm. Riddell of th Gait, Dec. 2.—Wm. Riddell of the 5th concession of Beverly, four miles from town, was gored to death by a bull in his stable yesterday. Deceased was a young man, unmarried, who lived with his sister and youngest brother John. The animal was a thoroughbred and known to be victous. Just how the fatality occurred is not known. The sister happened to enter the stable and discovered the dead body in the bull's stall.

Farmer's Fatal Fall. Pickering, Dec. 2.—Patrick Gosman, a farmer who lives on the base line, near here, fell from a straw stack last evening and was picked up dead. He was a man about 70 years old, and leaves a widow and three sons.

It comes hard to lose a soft berth.
