

WAKING UP.—The Secretary and Treasurer of the Woolen Factory Company...

MADAME ST. BERNARD, assistant Superior of the Congregation of Notre Dame...

It is generally expected that the Hon. George W. Howland will be Chairman of the Railway Board...

News Items.

The third editorial article on the ice is crowded out this week. In its place, we would advise our subscribers...

Subscribers who do not regularly receive their papers, will oblige by acquainting us of the fact, with as little delay as possible.

As an apprentice to the Printing business is wanted at this office. A boy from the country is preferred.

In calculating the duties on American Iron, the dollar is reckoned at 58 cents.

Munday morning's Chronicle has been duly received. Thanks.

We missed the Express last mail. We can't do without it.

The Canadian steamer Georgia, from Quebec, with four, arrived at this port, on Wednesday last.

We had the first thunderstorm of the season on Monday night last. It was not very severe.

Our telegraph news is worth reading. It is very full and reliable.

The steamer Albatross, from Boston and Halifax, with goods and passengers arrived at this port this morning.

The first Wednesday in each month has been appointed as the day for the sitting of the Small Debt Court.

Georgetown possesses a Mutual Improvement Association. The members of which gave a public entertainment a few nights ago.

Our friend, Harry Melrose, Esq., of St. Peter's Bay, has published a pamphlet on the meanness and dishonesty of the Patriot.

The April No. of the Typographic Advertiser, Philadelphia, has been received.

The season for Tea-parties and Picnics has set in. The Irish Volunteers will hold their Annual Picnic at Warren Farm on Monday next.

Messrs. McDonald and McKinnon's change of advertisement, next week. Their Store in Duff's new brick building, Queen Street, is well stocked.

"So foul and fair a day I have not known, as Saturday was. We had a cold and snow, rain and snow, and a high north-easterly wind that made the morning and water very disagreeable."

The City Fathers have been exerting themselves to procure a suitable site for a Fish Market. Persevere, gentlemen, and you will succeed.

We have received Newfoundland papers of the date of the 24th inst. They contain several new specimens of fancy type, absolutely nothing in the shape of local news to transfer to our columns.

Some of the St. John papers contain disagreeable details of the trial of the girl, Lockhart, as brought out at the trial of Norman, for the crime. No respectable paper should publish such details.

A correspondent has sent us an amusing account of a caucus meeting of the "leaders of the old Liberal Party," held in this City on Tuesday evening last.

The young Abbot has been released from quarantine at Georgetown. The small-pox patients are in hospital, and are doing well. With proper precautions, there is no fear of the disease spreading.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—As the Herald has to go to press early on Wednesday morning, our advertising patrons would oblige us by sending in their orders for the insertion of their advertisements, not later than 5 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

Several typographical errors appeared in the Herald's paper of the 24th inst. The names of the Colonial Secretary of Newfoundland, instead of James L. Nesbitt, Esq., M. P., and Member of the Executive Council of that Colony, Mr. Nesbitt is a native of Nova Scotia.

We have received from Montreal, an "Abstract of the Annual Calendar of McGill College and University of Montreal for the Session of 1871-2, which will open on the 13th of September next."

The City Council are advised by Her Majesty's Attorney, on Friday, that they are not to make any further appeals to the Law Courts in behalf of public rights. The City Council will do no such thing.

Tenders for a railing around the Head of St. Peter's Bay, to the extent of 1000 feet, will be received by the Superintendent of Public Works for the King's County, Georgetown, until the 13th of June. Also, for the repairing of Campion's Wharf, according to specification to be seen at P. J. Ryan's, Esq., until the 3rd of June.

We beg to direct attention to the card of John H. Torrey, gas-fitter, brass-fitter, &c., which appears in to-day's Herald. Mr. Torrey comes from Halifax, highly recommended by gentlemen of that City, as one who thoroughly understands his business, and worthy of being patronized.

The barque Lizard, 30 days from Liverpool, arrived in this port yesterday morning. When 10 days out, one of the crew was laid up with Small Pox. On the ship's arrival here, the Medical Officer instantly ordered her to quarantine, and the patient to be removed to Marine Hospital. He is now convalescent. Every precaution in the way of fumigation, will be taken before the bark is allowed to leave the quarantine station.

To Correspondents.—"Another Old Man's" communications, in which the position of the Fishery question, somewhat out of place now. We shall be happy, however, to hear from you, and to give our opinions on the question as it now stands. Two weeks ago, we received a letter from Mr. Melson, asking us to announce a letter to him, in which he expressed his views on the question as it now stands. We did so; but the communication has not yet appeared.

COLONIAL.

M. Thiels, while expressing his determination to bombard Paris, said:—"What are some of the riddles solved, and some of the enigmas solved, in comparison to the establishment of the legitimate power? Doubtless it must come to the bombardment of Paris, and my light is cold at the thought, but I must establish at any price the authority of this much calumniated Assembly."

It is announced that Miss Harriet Cotter, the great benefactor of the London poor, the founder of the London Dispensary, the restorer of London churches, has been made a baronet. The honor is unusual in the case of a lady, but it is well merited.

The "Racon" is under orders for a flying cruise of some weeks to Pictou, P. E. Island, etc. Mr. paper.

A young man named James Wolf, was drowned at Riasberry, Queen's County, N. S., last week.

The Kentville, N. S., Star reports that a few days ago the family of Mr. James Young, consisting of his wife and five children, and little child, were badly poisoned by eating parsnips, but life was saved by taking mustard in warm water, which produced vomiting.

The house and barn of Mr. Andrew Marshall, at Middle River, Pictou County, were destroyed by fire one day last week.

Mr. Richard Beatty, of Halifax, shipped from that port, per Commodore, 1000 lbs. salmon, for Boston.

A letter to Mr. H. W. Johnston, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, reports a lobster bottom off Seal Island, on the 18th inst. No lobsters were to be seen.

Joseph Ballentine was killed at St. John, N. B., on Monday, by a bundle of screws falling on him from a large pile of bundles at the Railway Station.

At a sale of P. E. I. and Cape Breton produce on the market here, Halifax, on the 25th inst., the following prices were obtained: 80 cents per bushel; and 55 cents per bushel; and 21 per barrel, and 125 to 135 cents per lb.

The flag-ship Royal Alfred, with Admiral Fanning, arrived at Halifax on the 25th. As she returned up the harbor, the customary salute was fired from H. M. S. Zensé, and the flying squadron are expected to arrive shortly.

The first mackerel of the season were sold in Halifax on the 24th inst., at 8 cents apiece.

The Pictou Standard learns that an election day on the market was held on the 24th inst. Graham, of Mill Brook, was going to the polling place to deposit his ballot, he fell dead. He had been taken ill by the cholera, which is the reported cause of his sudden death.

Messrs. William Hare & Co. of Halifax, N. S., have failed. Liabilities—$271,000.

A man named John Country of Chester, while on his way to Halifax, N. S., on the 24th inst., fell off the Cheever Road Coach, about fourteen miles from town, breaking both his arms, and receiving internal injuries. He is now lying in St. John's Hospital, and is expected to die in about ten minutes after he was admitted.

Tupper came to town on Friday night, and left in the Albatross on Saturday. During the whole of his stay here he did not see himself out, and on leaving the steamer, was vigorously lashed by the law process printed—Acadian Recorder.

A very rare sight was visible over St. John, N. B., on the afternoon of the 18th inst. It consisted of a large number of meteors, and distinct several persons in the suburbs of the city saw it for some ten minutes, when it disappeared.

St. John, N. B., was visited with quite a heavy storm of thunder and lightning, on the evening of the 23rd inst., during which the electric fluid struck the Carleton, but without causing any serious damage.

St. John, N. B., is looking up. Last week's papers report a highway robbery and a burglary.

Heaven's Hotel, at River Philip, Cumberland County, N. S., was destroyed by fire last week. The loss is about $1200. The building was insured for $6000 only.

The Anvers Gazette reports that on Wednesday, 17th inst., Mr. James McDonald, of this place, was killed by a bullet fired from a gun on the shore of the bay, near the mouth of the river. The bullet entered his chest, and he died in about ten minutes after he was admitted to the hospital.

A destructive fire occurred on Union Street, St. John, on the night of the 24th inst., which destroyed the building of Messrs. Fairbanks & Co., and destroyed supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The colored boy, Norman Henry, tried for violating the provisions of a girl named Lockhart, between seven and eight years of age, was acquitted by the jury. The evidence against him was very convincing, and his acquittal seems extraordinary. What he was doing, and how he came to be in the house, is not clear. The law administration of Justice and the operations of a system of education, in the case of a child of this age, is a matter of great interest.

The colored boy, Norman Henry, who was hanged on the 18th inst., in New York, was a New Brunswicker. He was a well educated man, and was about to publish a newspaper, and was about to be married. He was a native of New Brunswick, and was a member of the Baptist Church.

The Boston Journal says that Sarah M. Quire, 19 years old, who arrived from St. John, N. B., three weeks ago, was arrested for larceny of baggage belonging to a Mrs. Burns. The whole thing was evidently a mistake, and was brought upon the poor girl, who she became crazy, and has been sent to the Lunatic Asylum at Taunton.

The Fisheries, Canada and the Earl of Stirling.—The heirs of the Earl of Stirling have sent in a protest to the United States Senate against the part of the Washington Treaty relating to the Fisheries. A similar protest against the same treaty was sent in by Charles L. Alexander, Esq., his alleged rights should be fully recognized, and served on the Department of State during the sitting of the Joint High Commission by Charles L. Alexander, Esq., in the United States. Like the proceedings in this connection had at Washington during President Pierce's administration, nothing except, perhaps, the preparation of voluminous documents, is likely to come of it.

In the United States Senate April 6th, Mr. Garrett Davis made a personal explanation in reference to the allegation between himself and Butler in the Senate Chamber last week. Mr. Davis concluded his remarks with the assertion that Butler was the "university" of the Senate Chamber, and that he was not himself dissent from the general judgment against him.

THE ENGLISH MAIL CONTRACT.

A telegram from Ottawa announces that Mr. High, the London contractor for the mail service between Liverpool and Queenstown, has taken the contract for the mail service between Liverpool and Queenstown, N. S., last week.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—There is, it is said, at the present time, a perfect harvest of 84 all along the Cape Cod coast. Over 17,000 mackerel, besides a multitude of other fish, were caught at Dennisport in one day.

Perkins and his crew were captured on the coast of Nova Scotia, and were taken to the Cape Cod coast. The mackerel fishery is expected to be very successful this season than for many years past.

The Chesapeake Bay water birds are said to yield 25,000,000 bushels of oysters annually. Mills on the Mequaque river, Iowa, are stopped by the mackerel fish in the river.

At a sale of P. E. I. and Cape Breton produce on the market here, Halifax, on the 25th inst., the following prices were obtained: 80 cents per bushel; and 55 cents per bushel; and 21 per barrel, and 125 to 135 cents per lb.

The flag-ship Royal Alfred, with Admiral Fanning, arrived at Halifax on the 25th. As she returned up the harbor, the customary salute was fired from H. M. S. Zensé, and the flying squadron are expected to arrive shortly.

The first mackerel of the season were sold in Halifax on the 24th inst., at 8 cents apiece.

The Pictou Standard learns that an election day on the market was held on the 24th inst. Graham, of Mill Brook, was going to the polling place to deposit his ballot, he fell dead. He had been taken ill by the cholera, which is the reported cause of his sudden death.

Messrs. William Hare & Co. of Halifax, N. S., have failed. Liabilities—$271,000.

A man named John Country of Chester, while on his way to Halifax, N. S., on the 24th inst., fell off the Cheever Road Coach, about fourteen miles from town, breaking both his arms, and receiving internal injuries. He is now lying in St. John's Hospital, and is expected to die in about ten minutes after he was admitted.

Tupper came to town on Friday night, and left in the Albatross on Saturday. During the whole of his stay here he did not see himself out, and on leaving the steamer, was vigorously lashed by the law process printed—Acadian Recorder.

A very rare sight was visible over St. John, N. B., on the afternoon of the 18th inst. It consisted of a large number of meteors, and distinct several persons in the suburbs of the city saw it for some ten minutes, when it disappeared.

St. John, N. B., was visited with quite a heavy storm of thunder and lightning, on the evening of the 23rd inst., during which the electric fluid struck the Carleton, but without causing any serious damage.

St. John, N. B., is looking up. Last week's papers report a highway robbery and a burglary.

Heaven's Hotel, at River Philip, Cumberland County, N. S., was destroyed by fire last week. The loss is about $1200. The building was insured for $6000 only.

The Anvers Gazette reports that on Wednesday, 17th inst., Mr. James McDonald, of this place, was killed by a bullet fired from a gun on the shore of the bay, near the mouth of the river. The bullet entered his chest, and he died in about ten minutes after he was admitted to the hospital.

A destructive fire occurred on Union Street, St. John, on the night of the 24th inst., which destroyed the building of Messrs. Fairbanks & Co., and destroyed supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The colored boy, Norman Henry, tried for violating the provisions of a girl named Lockhart, between seven and eight years of age, was acquitted by the jury. The evidence against him was very convincing, and his acquittal seems extraordinary. What he was doing, and how he came to be in the house, is not clear. The law administration of Justice and the operations of a system of education, in the case of a child of this age, is a matter of great interest.

The colored boy, Norman Henry, who was hanged on the 18th inst., in New York, was a New Brunswicker. He was a well educated man, and was about to publish a newspaper, and was about to be married. He was a native of New Brunswick, and was a member of the Baptist Church.

The Boston Journal says that Sarah M. Quire, 19 years old, who arrived from St. John, N. B., three weeks ago, was arrested for larceny of baggage belonging to a Mrs. Burns. The whole thing was evidently a mistake, and was brought upon the poor girl, who she became crazy, and has been sent to the Lunatic Asylum at Taunton.

The Fisheries, Canada and the Earl of Stirling.—The heirs of the Earl of Stirling have sent in a protest to the United States Senate against the part of the Washington Treaty relating to the Fisheries. A similar protest against the same treaty was sent in by Charles L. Alexander, Esq., his alleged rights should be fully recognized, and served on the Department of State during the sitting of the Joint High Commission by Charles L. Alexander, Esq., in the United States. Like the proceedings in this connection had at Washington during President Pierce's administration, nothing except, perhaps, the preparation of voluminous documents, is likely to come of it.

In the United States Senate April 6th, Mr. Garrett Davis made a personal explanation in reference to the allegation between himself and Butler in the Senate Chamber last week. Mr. Davis concluded his remarks with the assertion that Butler was the "university" of the Senate Chamber, and that he was not himself dissent from the general judgment against him.

VERSAILLÉS, 24.

The streets of Paris are strewn with insurgents corpses. Our loss is small. The army behaved admirably. Justice will soon be satisfied, and France be happy in the midst of her misfortunes.

Adoles of this morning report terrible conflagrations still raging in Paris. The heavens are illuminated by the flames and the air full of debris for a great distance.

Masses of Parisians are reduced to cinders. Conflagration against Belleville and Charenton continues.

The total amount of bullion in the Bank of England is £23,600,000, which is an unprecedented amount in the annals of the bank.

The Archbishop of Paris and other hostages, and nearly fifty priests, were murdered in cold blood at the Mazas prison, on Tuesday night.

Several leaders of the Commune were shot to-day, upon being tried by Drum head court martial.

Collection in Lyons saved, except the library, in which a large number of valuable books were destroyed.

The following public buildings have been destroyed: Tuileries, Ministry of Finance, Prefecture of Police, Court of Accounts, Palace of Legion of Honor, Barrois, Quai d'Orsay, Hotel de Ville and Mont de Piété.

The following leading insurgents have been shot: Vallée, Amourax, Buisson, Rigault, Dombrowski and Bourgeois.

The troops to-day surprised and shot on the spot a large company of women engaged in pouring petroleum into cellars, and afterwards throwing in lighted fuses.

The insurgents have been driven into the cemetery of the Père La Chaise, where they are surrounded and must be captured.

"La Liberté" says the foreign powers promised extradition of members of the Commune, in event of their escape from France.

Courbet, a prominent Communist, has been shot by Versailles.

The insurgents have removed Archbishop Darbois, Bishops and Priests to Fort Rungel. The story about the massacre is denied.

The German Army will celebrate their victories by a grand triumphal entry into Berlin on June 16th.

Many of the troops of the 16th June, entered throughout the Empire on the 18th June.

Bismarck has agreed to compromise on the Alsace question, making the government of the conquered territory a dictatorship until 1871.

The Emperor of Russia will arrive in Berlin on the 9th June. He will witness the triumphal entry of the troops, which is appointed for the 16th June.

Despatches from Versailles, dated Friday evening, state that the houses situated on the Rue Royale, were naturally destroyed by fire.

The people are generally infuriated, and vow vengeance upon the perpetrators.

The Versaillesists have been killing all government troops as they pass.

The slaughter of the Nationals has been fearful. The streets are filled with dead bodies.

Despatches from Versailles, dated today, report that portions of the Belleville and Charenton quarters have been captured by the Versailles troops.

The fighting columns steadily advance into the yet unoccupied parts of the city.

The troops have become so infuriated with the resistance they have encountered, that they cannot be restrained from massacring the prisoners taken.

Many of the theatres have been burned to the ground.

Bomb shells are still falling thick and fast.

The fires have been generally subdued.

The Germans have fired upon a body of the rebels.

UNITED STATES.

New York, May 27.—Gen. Butler made a strong argument against the ratification of the Treaty of Washington to-day before a committee of the Massachusetts Legislature.

Foreign despatches say the treaty will be ratified to-morrow.

Washington, 27.—The prospect is to-day favorable for the ratification of the treaty of Washington by next Tuesday or Wednesday, in its present shape, without any modification whatever.

Gen. Butler has published a letter in which he takes strong ground against the treaty. He says the Canadians will manage to cut out the American fishermen in American waters.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

The practical operation of the Treaty, he thinks, will be the ruin of the American fishery, and is, in his fishing provisions, every day.

Shipping Intelligence.

PORT OF CHARLOTTETOWN. ESTABLISHED.

May 21.—Sch. Octavia, McDonald, Magdalen Islands; bearing.

22.—Sch. Frank, Hearn, Magdalen Islands; bearing. Sch. Adelle, Campbell, Magdalen Islands; bearing. Sch. Dominion, McLeod, Magdalen Islands; bearing. Sch. Larry Ann, Allan, Tintin; dest.

23.—Sch. Margaret Jane, Chapman, Bantouch, dest. Sch. Spray, Ross, Richibouctou; dest. Sch. Daniel, Walsh, Pictou; cal.

24.—Sch. George, Foster, Pictou; cal.

25.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

26.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

27.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

28.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

29.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

30.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

31.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

1.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

2.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

3.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

4.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

5.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald, Pictou; cal.

6.—Sch. Mary, Pellier, Shelburne; bearing. Sch. Vermont, McDonald,