Delightful Taste.

Last week there was a discovery of deposits of shale made north of Deer Lake near Joe Gload's Pond, and the properties are to-day being quickly taken up by a number of persons this morning at the Surveyor General's Department, paying in their rentals for area taken.

Yesterday afternoon hundreds of young people enjoyed the healthy pastime of outdoor skating on Burton's and Long ponds. The ice surface was fine and the ponds seem to be safe. Only a few people ventured out on Quidi Vidi Lake which is always considered to be a treacherous sheet of water and justly so. Until a few more days and nights of frost is experienced boys and girls should not go there.

Our Velvet TURBANS at $1.20 each, and Quill MOTOR HATS at $1.00 each is breaking all previous records.

Another large shipment of each received on Saturday, in

It is only a few days before Christmas, when the majority of our citizens will be enjoying the pleasures this season brings and undoubtedly our joy will be increased when we remember that we have done something to bring our less fortunate brothers and sisters some little Xmas cheer. The Christmas Dinner given by the Salvation Army is a medium whereby you can convey to these poor homes, some blessing this season. Kindly send your donations as the Army is anxious to supply as many homes as they possibly can.
