

Serviceable Summer Footwear!

Footwear as found at this Store represents the newest in styles, the best in quality and the very lowest prices consistent with satisfactory service. We have now opened a splendid assortment of Ladies' Summer Footwear, including the famous Dorothy Dodd brand. Call and inspect them.

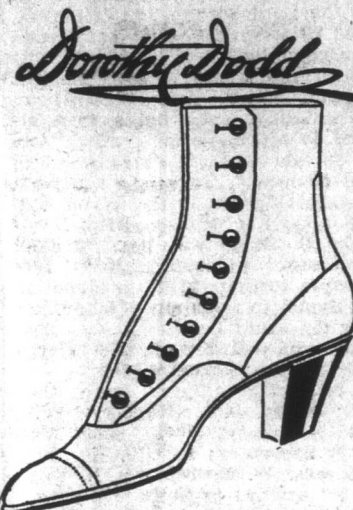

Faultless Fitting Footwear.

You may or may not be interested in the many points of excellence about Dorothy Dodd Shoes—the high grade of leather in both upper and sole, the accurate stitching, graceful lines, smooth lining, proper balance and proportion of the heels, and so on; but one thing you and every other woman are interested in, above all else, and that is their faultless fit.

Whatever the manufacturers of Dorothy Dodd Shoes have done to make them beautifully dainty, they have never lost sight of the fact that first of all Dorothy's must fit and hold their shape.

These two facts are the very base upon which the great popularity and success of Dorothy Dodd Shoes have been built. We are proud of the fact that we are the exclusive agents for Dorothy's here, and shall be pleased to prove to you and your feet the wisdom of making Dorothy Dadds your choice also. Summer stock now opened.

Women's White Canvas Boots and Shoes!

Now opened a full line of Ladies' White Canvas Footwear, as follows:
BUTTONED BOOTS—High & Low Heel.
LACED BOOTS—High and Low Heel.
LACED OXFORD SHOES.
PLAIN PUMPS.
 Full range sizes.

Children's & Misses' White Canvas and Poplin Boots & Shoes

Just in time for the Summer Holiday.
CHILDREN'S ROMAN SANDALS.
CHILDREN'S & MISSES' LACED SHOES.
CHILDREN'S & MISSES' LACED BOOTS.
CHILDREN'S & MISSES' BUTTONED BOOTS.
 Full range sizes.

Marshall Bros

But You Didn't Do the Worst Thing.

By RUTH CAMERON.

A friend of mine who built a house, last year, has been wondering over since it she did the best thing in her choice of lot and plan.

Last time I saw her she had completely decided that another lot further down the hill would have been better because it was more sheltered, and she was flagellating herself for not having taken it.

Someone tried to comfort her by pointing out the advantages of the lot she has, but in vain. She persistently closed her eyes to them.

She Didn't Take the House in Which the Cellar Flooded.

And then a very sensible woman spoke up and said: "Well, maybe you didn't do the best thing, but don't you think it's a comfort to know you didn't do the worst. Don't you remember that house down the other end of the town that you were just on the verge of buying, when you found the cellar flooded every spring? And don't you remember the old house you wanted to buy and fix over, and you know you said the other day when we went by there and said how the piazza sagged, that you couldn't be thankful enough that you didn't take it because you knew it would have to have something done to it all the time? Now either of those would have been much worse than building this nice house, even if you didn't pick the very best possible spot."

You Might Have Done Much Worse.

"You can't always do the best thing, and you might as well be thankful that you didn't pick the worst. That's what I always say to myself when I get to looking back and seeing something else I have done that looks now as if it would have been better."

I call that mighty good philosophy, don't you?

The trick of looking back after you have made a decision, and clouding your mind with regrets because you didn't do something else, is a very common and very unhappy habit.

You can see the Roses in Some Other Path More Easily than the Thorns.

I have suggested one attitude, before, in these columns—that if you had taken the other path and were in a position to see its disadvantages, you might be looking toward the path you did take, and picturing that as all roses.

Add to that antidote this sensible adviser's reminder. "You can't always choose the best way, and you didn't choose the worst," and surely the most virulent case of it-might-have-been blugs should be cured.

Minard's Liniment Co. Limited.

Dear Sirs,—This fall I got thrown on a fence and hurt my chest very bad, so I could not work and it hurt me to breathe. I tried all kinds of Liniments and they did me no good.

One bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT, warmed on flannels and applied on my breast, cured me completely.

C. H. COSSABOOM.

Rossway, Digby Co., N.S.

Your Boys and Girls

If your child stands incorrectly look to the clothing first for the defect. Perhaps there is too much weight on the shoulders, or the hose supporters are too tight, or the weight of the garments are not evenly distributed. Perhaps the shoes are uncomfortable, so that the youngster unconsciously bears more weight on one hip to ease the other foot.

Sometimes a child is dull and listless when the clothing is too heavy. This is apt to happen in the spring, when warm spells appear between cold days. It is not wise to lighten flannels until the weather settles, but there should be a change in outer garments if possible. Nothing drags a child more than overheating. More children catch cold from cooling too suddenly from a draught when in a perspiration, than become ill from too light clothing.

Sailor hats trimmed with bands of figured foulard are fashionable. Afternoon frocks have apron panels embroidered in bright hues. Sleeves are so varied and original as to be positively aggressive.

JAMS & MARMALADE!

Consumers are giving more thought to what is economical and what is not than ever before.

In offering Jams and Marmalade in 14 lb. pails at present prices a real saving can be effected. Try some and compare with present price of 1 lb. pots.

BACON.

Stocks are running low. Remember that salt pork is now costing as much as the Bacon we offer at 30c. lb. Daintily sliced by machine as thick or as thin as you wish. Other prices, 45c., 65c., 70c. lb.

C. P. Eagan

Duckworth Street and Queen's Road.

SUBSTITUTES FOR VEGETABLES!

In stock to-day:

30 bags Cal. Pea Beans, 100 lbs. each.

20 bags Small Lima Beans, 140 lbs. each.

120 bags Hand Picked Beans, 100 lbs. each.

50 bags Re-cleaned Beans 225 lbs. each.

50 bags Tender Green Peas, 100 lbs. each.

50 bags Split Peas, 98 lbs. each.

50 bags Round Peas, 100 lbs. each.

50 bags Patna Rice.

150 bags Whole Rice.

Soper & Moore

THE SOLDIER IN BATTLE.

"It seemed to me," he said to me as we were talking of it after, "that when we started I could see my little ones and hear their laughter."

Out there was No Man's Land, and wire.

An' troops of Prussians garbed in gray.

But back of me a cottage tree An' mother an' the kids at play.

"It's difficult, of course, to tell Just what was runnin' through my mind.

But somehow, I remember well, I saw the fence with roses twined An' in the yard the shady tree Where I had hung my baby's swing; An' something seemed to say to me: 'Don't let the Prussians harm a thing!'

"I saw the quiet, simple street Where stands that little home of ours; The parlor with its curtains neat, The window boxes with their flowers.

The mother smilin' at the door, The children playin' in the sun; An' something whispered, 'O'er an' o'er: 'Shall they be ravished by the Hun?'

"I saw the poppies, white an' red, That we had loved from year to year; The pansy an' the poppy bed, An' then I saw the havoc here— The blackened homes where shame has been.

The sorrow strewn by demons wild; An' fought to spare my cottage clean.

An' keep my loved ones undefiled."

If you are going to get that new suit of clothes, get it now, prices are going to soar. We from, and you can rely on a good as with new shipments of goods have a splendid stock to select fit in any style you wish to have it made. SPURRELL the Tailor, 365 Water St.—June 7, 1918.

Charming hand-embroidered corset covers are of ping habutai.

Milady's Boudoir.

THE PLAIN WOMAN.

If you are beautiful be glad that you are so richly blessed. If you are just a plain gray mouse, you can do much to add to your personal attractiveness and magnetism, for many a plain woman is beautiful if she cultivates certain little characteristics that every one possesses.

First she must learn to dress herself attractively. No one can deny the singular fact that nearly everything fashionable in pleasing, hence the necessity of a woman keeping up with the modes, not only for street wear but, also for the home.

In order not to be plain one does not need to dress elaborately. First study the mode of dressing your hair and select that, which is not only smart, but the one most becoming to you. Do not, in the haste and bustle of preparing for the day's work, think that the quickest arranged coiffure will suffice. Neither be misled by the thought that a tight, closely arranged coiffure is suitable to all faces.

Of all times of the day, the morning is the one time when the coiffure should be neatly arranged or concealed by a becoming breakfast cap. The hair is more easily arranged, in any event, if slightly curled or waved and such an effect may be achieved by doing the hair up at night on curlers of some sort.

Neatness is always a virtue, but the plain woman is not as attractive when dishevelled as the naturally beautiful woman.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "I'll help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the Lily and the rose, and that I may be chiefly fed, I ply my rakes and hoes."

How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his heel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that no one need depond; the coin I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwarks beans and Eagle succotash.

GENERAL HOLIDAY.—Carbonar observed a general holiday on Monday, but beyond a display of bunting there were no celebration of a public nature.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garment gown; I of ten gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like cast-ore or oil, I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil.

Smart Coats and Wraps!

Some exceptionally smart Coats and Wraps for Summer wear are now being displayed by us, and are notable as being the creation of some of the most fashionable New York Houses.

These beautiful Coats are built of Serge, Poplin and other textures, in Navy, Saxe and other smart shades.