AUCTION.

On Tuesday next, 30th inst., at 12 o'clock, on the premises, by Frank C. Wills, that desirable and New Dwelling House of 8 rooms, with Garage and Stable, owned by Mr. Sol. Cole on Pleasant Street, near Cornwall Avenue, with leasehold interest of 99 years in land. As this property is situated in the healthiest part of the city, comprising country air, with the advantages of sanitary conveniences and electric light, it would make a most desirable residence. For further particulars apply to
F. C. WILLS,
326 Duckworth Street,
jly26,3i   City Terrace.

To our friends and the public generally, we wish to state that as we propose continuing the business formerly conducted by our Father, the late P. C. O'Driscoll, we would be very thankful for a continuation of their support and patronage. Mr. Morry, who has been 16 years with him, will be associated with us.

All business entrusted to us will have our prompt attention.

Revelations of the Last German Ambassador in England.

My Mission to London,
1912-1914,

By PRINCE LICHNOWSKY.
(With a preface by Professor Gilbert Murray.)

The war has produced few human documents of the importance of Prince Lichnowsky's "Memorandum." It throws a flood of light upon the diplomatic correspondence published by the belligerent chancelleries in the opening months of the war, particularly upon the German White Paper, whose reservations it exposes, whose enigmas it untangles, whose lies it lays bare.

That is the diplomatic story of Prince's Ambassadorship at London, from 1912 until the war drove him home to Berlin in August, 1914, when he was deprived of rank and distinctions.

Should be read by every man and woman in the Empire; 60 pages, stiff covers.

Prices 25c.; by mail, 27c.
