A BOOM IN OIL!

Quoting from our New York correspondents, "all signs indicate that an oil boom of enormous proportions is in the making just now, with the likelihood of the recurrence of two years ago, which witnessed the greatest bull market ever seen. We are about at the end of a long depression; production has been lessened and present stocks of crude and refined oils are rapidly being used up, the result of which must be a gradual advance in the price of oil shares."

We especially recommend Midwest Petroleum, Pacific Oil, Texas Company, Middle States and Pure Oil—all consistent dividend-payers, and certain to advance in the immediate future. We are fully equipped to trade on margin in these issues.
