We will send THE EXPRESS and Mayflower and premium for one year for $1.25, and Mayflower, if you are already a subscriber to EXPRESS for 25 cents per year.

Death has removed another old resident from our midst in the person of Mr. John Hammond, who died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. Pullen Malahide, on Sunday last in his 71st year, from the effects of la grippe. Deceased was born in Nova cotia and came to this section when child, where he has almost constantly resided. He leaves one brother, Mr. L. Hammond, of Mapleton, and a daughter, Mrs. H. Pullen, to mourn his loss. The funeral took place on Tuesday last to the Aylmer cemetery and was very largely attended.

The Northwood cheese factory, under the Mr. Frank Boyes, has had a very successful year, as the following figures will show Total milk received, 2,614,502 lbs, cheese manufactured, 239,727 lbs, receipts $24,155. 10. paid patrons $21, 734.28, average price, $10.08 100 cents. The auditors report was accepted at the annual meeting which was held in the factory on I'uesday last. The following officers were elected for the coming season. Advisary board, J. C. Dance, J. C. Skinner, Geo. Lapham, Geo. Cope land and H. V. Mann. Secretary, Thos. Martindale, salesman, Frank Boyes, auditor J. Hoover. The question of making butter for a few weeks in the spring was then discussed and thought advisable to do so The patrons expressed themselves as being well pleased with the way the things had been managed during the past season. A very quiet home wedding took place on Wednesday morning of this week, at the residence of Mrs. R. Simmonds, Water St, when her niece, Miss Lizzie Wales, took for a life partner. Mr. Bert Savage, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the Sev. C. T. Scott, only the nearest relatives being present Mr. and Mrs. Savage left on the one o'clock train for Newmarket, where they will remain for a few weeks, after which they will take up their residence in Toronto. The bride has made Aylmer her home since childhood, and has a host of friends here, who respect and honor her for many sterling qualities of character. This was shown, not only in the many expressions of regret at her departure from town, and good wishes for her future happiness but by the numerous beautiful, and costly presents that were sent to her from friends in Aylmer and other places. Mr. Savage has become well known through frequen visits to our town, and is very highly has not yet given his decision in the matin Toronto, and the future looks bright Board, who have unanimously is vited and prosperous for a happy wedded life we him to remain in Sarnia for a fourth year.

A meeting of the Collegiate Inst. Board was held on Monday night last, when Mr. E. A. Miller was re-elected chairman, and Mr. W. W. Rutherford Sec. Treas. for the current year. The chairman and Dr. Sinclair were appointed a committee to act in conjunction with a similar committee from Dutton, to wait on the Minister of Education, and ask for a slight change in the act, by which the county councils of Oatsrio could if they think it necessary, assist any weak school in this district by an addition al grant. The proposition is so just, and in some cases so necessary, that the Minister will no doubt grant the change. They will propably go to Toronto today.

The deputation from different points in Ontario, of which Mr. D. H Price was member, who visited Ottawa last week and waited on the members of the Cabinet in connection with the securing of bounty on the production of beet root suger manufactured in this country, met with every success that could be expected. They were received by the following members of the Cabinet, Messrs. Fielding, Cartwright, Mullock, and Patterson, and received splendid hearing, being accompanied also by a large number of members of parliament, who filled the room of the Minister of Agriculture to its utmost capacity. We are in hopes that the Dom. Gov. will grant a substantial bounty in addition to that given by the Ontario Government, which is now assured, but particulars of which have not been brought down.

Use our pure cream tartar and baking powder. J. E. Richard's. What was generally conceded to be the best and most interesting meeting in the history of Malahide Lodge, No. 140, A. F. & A. M., took place on Friday evening last. A banquet was given in honor of the distinguished visitor, M. W. Bro. R. B. Hungerford, grand master, who previous to the closing of the lodge, gave a most excellent and instructive address. relative to the condition of the order Letters of regret were read from W. Gib on, P. G. M., of Beamsville; E. T. Malone P G M Toronto: Judge Harding. Lindsay; A. C. McWhinney, G. S. W., London, and others. About sixty sat down to the dainties provided with so much taste and skill by W. C. Talbot, the caterer, after which a number of toasts were proposed and ably responded to. Among them were "The King and the Craft," "The Grand Lodge of Canada," coupled with the names of M. W. Bro. Hungerford and V. W. Bro. C. W. Marlatt; "Sister Lodges," responded to by brethren from Harrietsville, St. Thomas, Vienna, Tilsonburg and Belmont. Rev. A. T. Sowerby, of London; Mr. Armstong, Tilsonburg, and other distinguished visitors made happy and pointed speeches. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the exemplifi cation of the Fourth Degree, presided over by Bro. S. S. Clutton, in his usual happy and thorough manner. "Auld Lang Syne" brought the pleasant gath ering to a close at two o'clock.

One of the most enjoyable sleighing parties of the seeason was given on Friday afternoon and evening last, by Miss Nellie McConnell. A large sleigh load started from here about 4 o clock and drove to Pt. Burwell, when Mrs. McConnell threw open the doors of her hospitable home to receive the cold and hungry crowd. A sumptuous hot dinner was soon on the table, with a twenty pound turkey as the center of attraction, and Mr. and Mrs. McConnell were soon given and object lesson of the kind of appetites possessed by the rising generation of Aylmer. After spending a most enjoyable evening, the party drove home again, having all thoroughly enjoyed themselves

Great wall paper and carpet sale begins on March 1st. Call early and make your elections. A. J. Anderson. The Epworth League Union of the Mala-

unable to be present and is indebted to the kindness of the Secretary of the Luton Leaugue and the Union President for material for this report The congregation was of goodly size and each of the six Leagues was represented. The chair was occu pied by the President Mrs. J. Coboon under whose leadership the Union is becom ing a real success in its sphere. A splendid programme was carried out, the principal feature of which was the address by Rev. W. H. Crews, of St. Thomas, should not be We should be happier and better as men and women than as beys and girls. "The world owes every man a living." This is untrue. The world owes a living only to one who has done some great deed or to one unable to work: it owes to a lazy person nothing but a grave 6 by 2 feet. Every one has a duty whether he reconize it or not. The story was told of a man who, when about to commit suicide, was stopped by another man who cried. "Hold o You have as much right to pay taxes as I have:" All have the same obligation, not responsibilities, because talents differ, but the same duty is laid upon each man and woman. "When in Rome, do as Rome does." When in Rome, do right. Some times this means being singular and unfashionable. When leaving home his mother gave him these two texts as parting advice. "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not," and "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, etc. "All things come to him who waits." Instead of waiting we should go forward even as the Israelite with the Red Sea in front, the Egyptians behind, and mountains on either side. should be inventive and make and watch for opportunities. "Every young man must sow his wild oats." Sow them if you must but remember, you must harvest them. Drummond divides sin into three parts, power of sin, guilt of sin. and stain. eiety is too proud to recognize the guilt and power, but being forced to recognize the stain, tries to cover it. "Still water runs deepest." Be demonstrative. In church work, let your comrades know what you dress, a short time was spent socially. A recitation by Miss Ethyl McDonald and a vocal duet by the Messrs. Carpenter brought to a close what was accounted to be one of the most enjoyable meetings in the history

A great many of our inhabitants will near with regret of the death of Mrs. Henry A. Branton, wife of the proprietor of the Balmoral House, St. Thomas, which occurred on Thursday of last week, of pneumonia and heart failure, at the age of 37 years. She will be better remembered as Miss Minnie Pankhurst, who lived here with her father, Mr. J. C. Pankhurst, printer and publisher, some years ago, and was then a young lady loved and respected by all who knew She leaves besides her husband, a son, Winfred. Deceased had been in poor health for some time past, but was hide circuit held the first quarterly meeting around as usual on Wednesday and at of the year at Luton of the evening of Feb. night she retired at 7 o'clock, complain-12th. The corresponding secretary was ing of a violent headache. Shortly after midnight Mr. l'ranton found her lying on the floor. I'r. Lawrence and Dr. Tufford were summoned, but their efforts were without avail. Mrs. F. Crompton, Toronto; Mrs. Chas. Herendeen, Chicago; Misses Lillie and Rosie Pankhurst, of Toronto, are sisters of deceased. Mr. C. Pankhurst, of Toronto, is the only brother. The funeral took place on Sunday.

> Svingali, the great hypnotist, telepathst and mind reader, has been holding forth He intends refitting the house throughout, this week to good audiences, and giving the barn, it is an assured fact everything some remarkable exhibitions of his powers. Madam Svingali in telepathy also performs some wonderful acts. On Monday afternoon last, Svingali gave his great blindfold drive, amittee composed of Dr. S nclair, E. C. Monteith, W. S. Caron, C. O. Learn, F. Trim and D. H. Price were selected to make the drive with him. While Svingali remained at the Brown House, blindfolded. the parties named took a team and pleasure sleigh, and started east, turning south on King street to Sydenham, then east to Queen Centre, south to Sydenham, east to John, north to Talbot, and east around the block. stopping at Emmett and Harris' barber shop, where they got out and selected a cigar from a box in the bottom of a small cupboard. They took the cigar into the Express office, and hid it in a dark room under the stairway, among a lot of boxes and paper, and proceeding back to the Brown House, Svingali got in the sleigh, took hold of the lines, and started the horses off at a gallop, through the crowded streets, being blind folded. Without any instruction from anyone, he drove over the same ground and roads which the committee had taken, missing only the block, and remarking as he stopped the team, "I have made a mistake, but we will get out here and go back." Taking hold of the wrist of two members of the committee he walked back to the EXPRESS office, and straight to the door under the stairway and in a few minutes found the cigar and walked straight to the barber shop and opening the cupborrd, placed the cigar in the box from which it was taken. The day a subject was put to sleep in Christie and Caron's show window and remained there untill 9 p. m. when he was carried to hell and brought out of his 12 hour nap. Svingali is all right, and well worth a persons time in going to eee, as his feats are If you want a good wall paper at lowest
