Continuation of Evidence in

New York, Sept. 3.—The State Board of Arbitration concluded its session yesterday with the hearing of the following evidence, but will resume again to-day:

Mr. Webb continued: "An engineer named Lee was discharged for unsatisfactory service. The man Lee was very arrogant and insolent, and said he would tie up every wheel between here and Buffalo if he did not get some of the Vanderbilt money. Several of the men knew the cause for which they were discharged. Their relations with the Knights of Labor had nothing to do with their discharge. Mr. Lee's prominence in the order was no reason for his discharge.

Mr. Pryor endeavored to find out if the Knights of Labor question had been discussed by the Board of Directors, but the Board of Arbitration declined to admit the question.

"That shuts us off." remarked Mr. Person.

Sackville's Queer Claim.

London, Sept. 3.—Lord Sackville, as lord of the manor of Stratford-on-Avon, has presented to the Town Council a claim for encroachment and rent in respect to the fountain and clock tower donated by Mr. George W. Childs, of Philadelphia. At a court meeting to-day several speakers denounced the conduct of Lord Sackville in the matter. They said the spot on which the fountain stands has not been used as a public market for 600 years. The Council holds that there has been no encroachment unless Lord Sackville's agent writes that if the Council admits the claim, at the same time asking that it be not enforced, his Lordship may refrain from levying rent. The Council, however, has decided to fight the claim.
