The annual excursion to Port Stanley of the Sunday schools of Thamesville, Bothwell, Newbury and Glencoe takes place on July 23.

A young man employed by a farmer in Delaware started for the home of his parents Sunday morning with his employer's horse and buggy. When returning in the evening he stopped at a friend's house for a short time, tying his horse to the fence, and went into the house. On coming out he was surprised to see a man jump into his rig and drive away. Thinking it was a joke, and the man would return, he waited for some time. Then he took another horse and stafted in pursuit. The lorse was found unhitched from the buggy and tied in a mill yard.

Mrs. K. Baker, Delaware, has gone with her children to spend the summer with thends in Manitoba.
