"Young Mon's Rally."

The first of the series of young men's meetings was held yesterday afternoon in Victoria Hall, and was well attended, the body of the hall being nearly-filled with men of all kinds. The Clitzens' Temperance Band aided very materially in he musical part of the services and did themselves credit. The choir was cemposed of members of the boys' department of the association, aided by some older voices, and considering this was their first attempt at leading singing, got along very well. They sang a very pretty thing entitled "Throw Out the Life Line," at close of address. The meeting was presided over by Mayor Spencer and was addressed by Rev. W. H. Ware (an ex-secretary of the association, here), now of Chathem. He gavea very stirring address on "When He Came to Himself." It was full of meaning and those present seemed to enjoy it very much. These meetings are sure to become popular and will be productive of much good. Directors (Mayor) Spencer, Hodgson and Jelers were present and quite a number of the active workers of the association.
