United Heart and Hand.

Sir Oliver Mowat's union with Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, both as a member of the new Parliament (as leader in the Senate, which he promises to aid to reform), and as a member of the new Government soon to be formed, is everywhere received with the greatest of satisfaction by moderate men of all parties. It is felt that Sir Oliver's mature experience will be of immense benefit to the country when applied, in the manner best fitted to his tastes and years, to advance the common welfare.

As a statesman, who for a quarter of a century has been Premier of his native Province, as the ablest manager of public affairs who has held the confidence of his fellow-Canadians, as the never-vanquished defender of the rights of his people, whether in the majority or in the minority, Sir Oliver Mowat is a tower of strength, and it means much that he has joined his fortunes with the honored statesman who is the chosen chieftain of the Federal Liberal party, and is supporting him with a cordiality, determination and wisdom. The triumph of the united statesmen will be welcomed by the large majority of the people of Canada as the beginning of an era of progress, of economical and safe government, of prosperity.

Keep Dark!

The Winnipeg Free Press, which has come out as a straight supporter of the Dominion Government, warns Sir Charles what he must talk about and what he must leave alone when he addresses the people of that city. The Free Press pleads with Sir Charles not to say in Manitoba that his policy is the same as it was when the school bill was before the House of Commons, and as it is now said to be in Quebec Province, if he does make that declaration, his Winnipeg organ tells him that "he may find that his mission to the west is about the worst misfortune that could happen to his political friends." Into what a harmonious hole have the men in power put themselves by their tortuous and unstatesmanlike course in recent days!

Into Springbank.

There is general satisfaction in the city that the agreement between the civic authorities and the street railway company, for the extension of the electric line to the waterworks park at Springbank, has been completed. Work on the extension is now in active progress. With rapid transit to and from that delightful down river resort, a very large increase in the traffic will be assured. Few more fitting places for family and general picnic parties are to be found in the West.

It should not be difficult for the street railway company, with the co-operation of the railways which center in this city, and of the citizens, to make London more and more an excursion point.

He Put No Trust in Kings.

Since he entered public life Mr. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance in the blighted Ottawa Administration, has represented King's county, New Brunswick. Some time ago, however, he found that he could not be elected in that constituency. He discovered that Col. Domville, at one time a Conservative M. P. for the county, but for some years an earnest supporter of Mr. Laurier, had gained the affections of the electors to such an extent that defeat stared him in the face. Mr. Foster therefore resolved to flee. Even the prestige of a Cabinet portfolio, he found, could not save him. He shook the dust from his heels, and went over into Queen's county, where at last election there was over 1,000 Conservative majority, but where he has now to fight for his life. And in King's county Mr. Pugsley became Mr. Foster's successor as Conservative candidate. Mr. Pugsley canvassed the electorate, but he, too, discovered that it was no use to fight against the popular tide of Liberal progress, and now we find him among the very much resigned candidates, earnestly pleading with his political friends to call a new convention to select a candidate to take his place.

In the last few months three constituencies formerly returning Ministers in the present Ottawa Administration, selected as their representatives supporters of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier. To these must now be added

King's county, N. B., till now represented by Mr. Foster. The determination to end the present extravagant and corrupt regime at Ottawa is confined to no one province in the Dominion. It is everywhere in evidence. No one need be surprised, indeed, if Mr. Foster be defeated in the supposed Conservative hive to which he has betaken himself.

A Marked Contrast.

The cost of keeping a prisoner in the Central Prison at Toronto, under the management of the Government of Ontario, at the head of which has been Sir Oliver Mowat, is $164 62 a year; deducting the revenue, the cost is only $95 88.

In the Kingston Penitentiary, which is under the management of the Dominion Government, each prisoner costs $208 71, or, deducting revenue, $201 15.

No wonder the taxpayers enthusiastically welcome the prospect of a change of management at Ottawa, and the establishment of a Laurier-Mowat Administration.

By the Way.

At the South Victoria Conservative convention, Mr. John McSweeney announced that for 30 years he had been supporting the party, but the men at its head had gone wrong, and in the ensuing election he would have to go against them. Mr. McSweeney is a type of an electorate numbering many thousands in Canada. They have been good Conservatives, but they feel that the interests of Canada are greater than mere party interests, and that the interests of the country demand a change of Administration.

The Sultan is reported to be suffering from brain fatigue. He will never be afflicted with heart trouble.

There will be a national house cleaning this year at Ottawa, and the new Liberal broom will sweep clean.

Condemning the stock-in-trade arguments of the high tax organs which are being resurrected again is simply a case of roasting chestnuts.

The high tax party of Canada has swapped horses while crossing the stream, but as the nag will never reach dry land it does not matter much.

Tisdale, Taillon and the other boys who have consented to play in Tupper's back-yard will find themselves over the fence and out next month.

There are five members in the Tupper law firm at Halifax. Four of his partners have already managed to get nominations for the Dominion Parliament. Surely the remaining solitary will have a seat found for him. When over one-fourth of the members of the Government are Tupper kith and kin, no scruple should influence them to give the law firm a strong hold on public office also.

The Hamilton Herald, which at last general election supported the Conservative party, now says of the Tupper letter: "Sir Charles Tupper might have saved himself a lot of mental worry if instead of bothering with a three-column manifesto he had simply declared: 'It is my desire to hang onto office and annex all the fat jobs in sight for The Family.'"

High tax journals and high tax machine politicians are constantly expressing their fears that something dreadful will happen if a change of Government takes place at Ottawa. But the great mass of the people do not agree with them. On the contrary, sensible electors know that a change of rulers is absolutely necessary, and are rejoicing over the prospect of being able on June 23 next, to aid in bringing the happy deliverance about.

I am happy to know that you and I are, and I believe, have always been, in substantial accord as regards Dominion questions. Our national origin is not the same, our religious creeds are different, but we are both of Canadian birth, we both love Canada and the empire, and we both rejoice in our British connection, we both desire the prosperity of Canada, and the well-being of all classes, conditions and creeds in its population, and I believe that we agree as to the best means of securing these objects.—Sir Oliver Mowat to Hon. Wilfrid Laurier.

To meet the point that one-fourth of the members of the Government of Canada, as it stands today, is made up of the Tupper family, while almost all adult male relatives not included in the Government ring are already in public offices, a contemporary prints a professed list of relatives of Sir Oliver Mowat, from time immemorial, who have served the country. To show the absurdity of the comparison, it need only be said that alleged sons-in-law, brother-in-law, nephews-in-law, uncle to cousin-in-law, and so forth are catalogued as having, in near or remote times, worked for the public. And so that the list may be still further padded, the dead as well as the living are chronicled, and the suspected recipients of emoluments, as well as the ascertained civil servants, are named. How hard pressed for an offset to the new Ottawa family compact the high tax organ must be.

The Century for May is handsomely illustrated. It contains a very timely article on "The Crowning of the Czar," by Miss Thornton, daughter of Sir Edward Thornton, for so many years British Minister at Washington; the coronation was that of Alexander III.

In 1883, Prof. Moane describes Napoleon's arrival at the "Pinnacle of Earthly Grandeur." Felix Moscheles tells of being "in Bohemia with Du Maurier," only one of the illustrations shows any trace of the style which Du Maurier has possessed since 1880. Besides the crowning of a Czar and the Napoleonic story, the century, through Mr. W. R. Thayer, tells of the election of the Pope; and in other respects as well as in his articles are appropriate and interesting.

Benjamin McMahon, who was sentenced to Kingston Penitentiary for life several years ago for complicity in the murder of John Holton, Tilbury East, has been pardoned. He will be set at liberty this month.

Mrs. McGaw, wife of Alexander McGaw, of Woodstock, died after an illness of several weeks from pneumonia and typhoid fever. The deceased's maiden name was Alice Cockburn. With her husband, her untimely loss. One of the brothers, the eldest, John, being a farmer near by. The third brother is Rev. Edward Cockburn, of Paris Presbyterian Church.

BOY KILLED BY LIGHTNING IN BED.

Muskegon, Mich., May 7.—At about 3 o'clock yesterday morning a terrific thunder storm swept over the city. A bolt of lightning struck the house of Neis C. Nelson, Grand avenue, going down the chimney and into a bedroom, smiting the bed into pieces and killing William Nelson, aged 12 years, but not injuring Herman Hendrickson, aged 20, who was in the room. The back of Nelson's body was blue and purple from the shock, and his hair was slightly singed.

But Now Insured in Both.

"Should I die while I am in a position to pay my insurance premiums, my family will owe their support to Scott's Sarsaparilla. Two years ago I applied to two companies for insurance, $1,000 in each. My face was a mass of pimples blotches and my urine did not stand the test. One doctor in examining me said I could not pass, but that my trouble was curable. He advised an alternative medicine, and I commenced taking Scott's Sarsaparilla. Both companies rejected me, but four months later, after I had taken five bottles of your remedy, I am thankful to say both accepted me as a risk—one being a stock company, the other a mutual. The examiner who previously examined me, remarked: 'I never saw such a change in any man.' This is endorsed by Mr. J. Todd, the popular druggist, corner Queen and Crawford streets, Toronto. Scott's Sarsaparilla builds up debilitated constitutions, imparts strength, vigor and vitality, clears and purifies the blood. It cures skin diseases, rheumatism, gout, indigestion, and all complaints arising from poor or poisoned blood. Of all druggists, $1 per bottle.
