STOCK MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

H. C. Becker, broker, Bank of Commerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Co. today:

New York, June 27.—Close.—The tendency of today's market seemed to be on the whole towards higher prices, but business was in extremely small volume and almost entirely of a professional character. Pennsylvania was the leader of the market, there being apparently a stock for sale, while the demand for it was fairly brisk. For the first ten minutes the market became stagnant, but revived to some extent by the publication of the bank statement. The showing made was considered favorable, as although the loans increased nearly $14,000,000, the deposits increased nearly $10,000,000, and the surplus reserves now stand nearly $13,000,000, which is practically the same figure as last year. It is believed that the situation is now strong enough to admit of the large disbursement incident to the end of the first half-year, being made without serious disturbance to the general market. Certainly the street is in better condition than it was last year, for the reason that with an equally large surplus reserve there has been a marked diminution of the stocks carried for speculative purposes. The market closed strong and at about the best figures of the day.
