UNSETTLED WEATHER AFFECTS THE MARKET

Small Attendance-Live Hogs the Feature--- Sold at High Prices.

The unsettled weather was probably responsible for the very small market this morning. Only two loads of hay this morning. Only two loads of hay were offered, both bringing the top price, $12 50. No grain was shown at all, though the prices on all varieties still remain high. still remain high.

Live hogs were the only commodity shown in any quantity, and in these there was another strong advance. The prices ranged from $7 10 to $7 15.

COMMITTEE DID NOT PURCHASE THE HOSE

No Guarantee Accompanied the Tenders for Supply Needed for Hospital.

ommittee was held on Saturday evening to consider the tenders for supplying hose for the new buildings at Victoria Hospital. When the two tenders were opened it was found that neither had complied with the specifications, and had given no guarantee with the hose tendered on. It was unanimously decided to call for tenders again.

Chairman Stewart pointed out that the building would not need to be opened until May 19, and Architect Nutter said the hose could easily be in place by that time if the tenders were called for again Other Matters.

Architect Nutter also asked that the floors of the building be oiled, and this, together with the matter of retaining both a day engineer and a night engineer, was left with the to start introducing manual training?" chairman to settle. Chairman Stewart reported that Leonard & Sons had asked for $361 in mage, "unless you want London al-

118 DUNDAS ST., LONDON.

Young Woman Charged With Theft of Livery Rigs Said To Be Incorrigible.

Nellie Pryor, charged with theft, by B. G. H. Wright and Liveryman Paisley, was this morning sentenced to wo years in the Mercer by Magistrate

Miss Pryor in court stated that she was 19 years old, and that her parents ived in Galt. She admitted having been in trouble in Woodstock. court said. "The lady with whom you were last was good and kind to you and did everything to reform you; and yet you stole her things, and, in addition, took away two different horses and buggies. When you were before Magistrate Ball, in Woodstock, he threatened to send you to the Mercer for two years. I have information that your parents regard you as absolutely acorrigble. You must be controlled and prevented from drinking, and from other practices that will result in your ruin. I sentence you to two years in the Mercer." The girl received the sentence with apparently the utmost unconcern, and told the court that she had intended telephoning back about the rig from St. Thomas, but had left it over until the morning and was then arrested.
