Head of Bureau of Commerce Says Wholesale Immigration Must Be Checked.

Tokio, Nov. 30 .- Baron Ishii, chief of the bureau of commerce, of the Japanese foreign office, who visited the United States and Canada for the purpose of investigating the immigration problem, arrived at Tokio today, and conferred with the officials of the foreign office, with whom he engaged a thorough canvass of the situation for "My visit to the United States and Canada convinced me that the opposiof the occupants could not be extri- ton, dropped dead in the offices of the tion to the Japanese is based partly upon race prejudice, though considerable of it is due to labor troubles instituted by agitators. I found even Japanese residents in the United States and Canada who resent the incoming of their countrymen from the Hawaiian Islands and Mexico, which is disliked. "While it is proper for Japanese to law to increase tavern and shop conserve the interests of the Japanese now residing abroad, many of whom are prospering and living peaceably in America, in my opinion it will be necessary, in order to keep absolute faith with the United States, to prevent emigration of laborers thither altogether, because an exclusion act would be disagreeable. We should send laborers to Canada in great mod-
