splendid program of sports, featured by a novelty event of an excitingly competitive nature, named "the finding of the mysterious companion." This is a new event in picnic sports and created a great deal of interest The big event of the day was a softball match between the softball match between the teams captained by Mrs. Leigh and Mrs. Mortin, the latter's nine winning 14 to 11, by a last inning rally. George McBride acted as umbire.

The drawing contest for the 100-pound bag of sugar was the other event, which caused a great deal of interest, and was won by Mrs. William Wannamaker of 236 East street, After the completion of the sport program a delightful picnic lunch was served. A large refreshment booth did a rushing business.
