Not it finitely and the holy a ministry out we has retired from the ties this season. Toronto ought to have a good team and Word, is bound to be in it with the best of them. The two bright particular stars of the football firmament, however, are Ottawa College and Osgoode Hall, and between them, it is generally thought, the final will be played. Both will be very strong, the college having all of its last year's team, and the Hall, although it loses Blake and McGiverin, will get Casey Wood and Alexis Martin, besides several other players of more or less note.

Atexis Martin, besides several other players of more or less note. The changes in the rules this rear are not many, the principal being that one which penalizes standing in front of the ball during a scrimmage, and the one which directs the referee to product an amplice; it will take some time being that one which penalizes standing in front of the ball during a scrimmage, and the one which directs the referee to appoint an umpire; it will take some time before players and referee become accus-tomed to this new official, but it is confi-dently expected that he will finally put an tomed to this new official, but it is conn-lently expected that he will finally put an end to the scrapping on the wings which has in some matches during recent years been such an unpleasant feature. Alto-gether the prospects of the season look par-ticularly bright, and good weather and big proved seem all that are needed to make on the most successful in
