St. John and Gaadaur in England.

The Sportsman of London, Eng., has received a draft for $100 from Mr. J. A. St. John of St. Louis as a portion of the stake money for George Hosmer of Boston in the forthcoming match over the Thames championship course for $1000 a side and the forthcoming match over the Thames championship course for $1000 a side and the challenge cup provided by the proprietors of The Sportsman, lately field by W. G. East.

St. John speaks well of Hosmer and treust that his visit to England will be an enjoyable one. He sake that the same kind consideration may be extended to Hosmer as was shown himself and Gaudaur in 1886. St. John state that he may visit as wall probably be ring Gaudaur over if there is a good man to make a match with or he would match Gaudaur in 1886. St. John state that he may visit for the would match Gaudaur in the coming paring, and if there is a good man to make a match with or he would match Gaudaur in the world. thorne Park, and it looks as if the celebrated Chicago track would be closed. The last set of warrants were for Edward Corrigan, John Brenock, James C. Burke, Joseph Ulman, Christopher Chinn, Harry Kuhl, Lee Price, Herman Meyer, "Colonel" Eliott, Williams Barnett, Charles Watson, Lee Williams, Edward Leonard, Frank Bell, L. Williams, Edward Gaylor and Samuel Bell. Attorney Denmark avers that warrants will be sworn out daily for the holders of real estate in the vicinity until the racetake is closed; but that a new move is to be made in a few days. The warrants will be placed in other hands than those of the sheriff for service, and the tactics employed in stopping racing at the Garfield Park track will be resorted to.

Corrigan, Brenock, Burke, Kuhl, Ulman, Meyer, Elliott and Barnett were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Jones on the warrants sworn out Monday afternoon, and were taken before Justice Bradwell, where they gave bonds of $200 each to appear Dec., 30.
