

MORE ABOUT STYLE

STYLE is the most important feature of clothing now-a-days. By this we do not mean fancy cuffs, extremely long coats, odd shaped lapels, or loud patterns. We do not mean foppish clothes. Style isn't something that makes a man look odd or calls special attention to his clothes. It is, and should be, the element that contributes an air of culture, refinement, taste. That's the kind of refinement you'll find in 20th Century Brand bench-tailored clothes.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the last regular meeting of Warwick Union L.O.L. No. 1029 held May 10th, the following resolution of condolence was passed:—

To BROS. ROBERT, ARTHUR, AND WM. THOS. HIGGINS:

DEAR BRETHREN:—At our last regular meeting it was resolved that a letter should be forwarded to you expressing our sincere sympathy in your sad bereavement through the death of your father, who for many years has been a highly esteemed and valued member of the Orange Order, and by his noble Christian character and abiding love for the brotherhood has endeared himself to all. With you we mourn his loss and with you we feel the separation from one so dear. But we comfort ourselves with the knowledge that God is too wise to err and too good to be unkind. He doeth all things well. We would ask you not to sorrow as those without hope, but trust in God who can and will remove all sorrow. And when our journey on earth is over may we all meet the loved one in the Grand Lodge above; and may you as a family be reunited and not one member missing in that land where death comes not. Human sympathy is weak, but may God bless and comfort you in this your hour of sorrow, is the prayer of the brethren of Warwick Union Lodge.

The dead body of William Wills was found in the bush of Mr. Vernon, of the first concession of Bosanquet, on Monday. He had been drinking the day he left home, it is said. The coroner decided an inquest unnecessary. The body was badly decomposed, and he ordered the remains to be interred at once. Interment took place in Finchill Cemetery, second concession Bosanquet. Wills was 71 years of age. Besides his wife he leaves a large family of grown-up children, two of whom are at home.

INDIGESTION RIGHTLY CURED STAYS CURED

Not by Treating the Symptoms but by Toning up the Stomach to do Nature's Work.

Indigestion should not be neglected for by depriving the body of its proper nourishment it grows steadily worse. Neither stimulating medicines, which ruin the already weak stomach by making it work beyond its strength, should be used, nor predigested foods, which do not excite a flow of the digestive fluids, and by disuse cause the stomach to grow weaker. Nowhere is the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills more clearly useful. Its principle is to enable the stomach to do its own work by building up the blood and giving tone to the nerves. When these are once more restored to their normal health indigestion disappears and the cure is permanent. In proof of these statements we give the experience of Mrs. Paul Gannon, Star City, Sask., who says: "For more than a year I suffered with all the terrible pains of indigestion, and my life was one of the greatest misery. I did not seem to make any difference whether I ate or not, the pains were always there, often accompanied by a severe bloating and a belching of wind. I did not even get relief at night, and sometimes hardly got a bit of sleep in my misery. I tried many remedies said to cure indigestion, but they did me not one particle of good and I fully expected that I would always be afflicted in this way. At this time my brother came home on a visit and he urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got six boxes for me. By the time I had taken four boxes I began to improve and could eat with some relish. I was greatly cheered, and continued taking the Pills until all traces of the trouble had disappeared and I could once more eat all kinds of food without the smallest inconvenience. We have since used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in our family for other troubles. I am so firmly convinced of their virtue as a family medicine that I have no hesitation in recommending them to all weak, ailing people."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
