A DINNER IN HONOR OF MISS GRAVES AND MISS CHESELEY.

On Friday afternoon Miss Hockin gave a dinner in the Domestic Science room. The guests of honor were Miss Eva Graves who after six years of successful work has been obliged to resign owing to ill health and Miss Carrie Chesley who succeeds Miss Graves. The other guests were the members of the school faculty.

Three toasts were honored—to Miss Graves proposed by Principal M. Gill, to Miss Chesley proposed by Vice Principal Bauls and in the Honors, Miss Hockin proposed by Mr. E. W. Bout. Suitable responses were made by the ladies. All the speeches expressed regret that Miss Graves was obliged to give up her work and referred to the pleasant relations which had existed between Miss Graves and the other members of the faculty.

The spread was of the daintiest, and was served in a way that elicited such praise for the waiters—Misses Marjorie Pinos, Dorothy Burditt, Myrtae Young and Mary Raymond of the tenth grade.

A severe storm swept the New England Coast—Sunday.
