NEW INTRODUCTORY GRAMMAR

FOR USE OF JUNIOR CLASSES IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

SWINTON'S LANGUAGE LESSONS. Adapted to Canadian Schools. By J. Macmillan, B. A., Ottawa Collegiate Institute. Price, 25c.

R. DAWSON, B.A., T.C.D., Head Master High School, Belleville.

I have been very much pleased by the introduction of "Swinton's Language Lessons," into the list of Canadian School Books. It is simple, comprehensive, and reliable; and shows very clearly how easily the study of grammar may be made to go hand in hand with the practice of Composition, the great end for which grammar ought to be taught. We have at last an elementary text book which may be entrusted into the hands of the most inexperienced teacher without any fear of its being abused.

JOHN JOHNSTON, P.S.I., South Hastings.

I have carefully examined "Swinton's Language Lessons," and am convinced from what I have heard from some of my most experienced teachers, that it is by far the best Elementary text book on the subject that has yet been placed within reach of our Canadian children. The simultaneous exercises in composition are an admirable feature. I shall recommend the book for use in all the schools in my district.

J. M. PLATT, M.D., P.S. Inspector, Picton.

I am greatly pleased with this little work. Our best and most experienced teachers teach grammar to junior classes orally, after the same fashion. Young and inexperienced teachers can do as well with "Language Lessons" as the oldest and best can do without it. To pupils just entering upon this important branch, this little book in question has no superior in the market.

W. S. CLENDENING, Inspector East Bruce, Walkerton.

* * With its valuable aid the teacher will find it no difficult task to make the study of language agreeable to even junior pupils. I esteem it so highly that I will use my influence to get it into the hands of every teacher in my district, and, if authorized, into every school likewise.

ROBT. MATHESON, M.A., H. M. High School, Walkerton.

* * Language Lessons will assuredly prove a boon to teachers of composition. I find that for teaching English Grammar it is superior to the usual treatises, as it treats of Grammar in a practical manner.

C. MOSES, P. S. I. County of Haldimand, Caledonia.

I have carefully examined Swinton's Language Lessons for junior classes and consider it one of the best yet published, being admirably adapted for use in our public schools.

BEATTY'S SYSTEM OF PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP.

A New Canadian Series of Head-line Copy-books for High and Public Schools.

Complete in 9 numbers, systematically graded and arranged to meet the requirements of our Schools. The series is divided into an ELEMENTARY and ADVANCED COURSE, each complete in itself. The ELEMENTARY COURSE consists of four books and the ADVANCED of five.

BOOK No. 1. Teaches the contracted small letters, viz., i, u, v, x, n, m, o, e, w, a, r, s, concluding with words formed from them by combination. The letters are introduced synthetically and are faintly printed on the surface of every page to be traced with pen and ink by pupils in primary divisions.

BOOK No. 2. Introduces the extended letters, viz., p, t, d, b, h, k, l, f, g, j, q, z, and the first class of capitals. It also reviews the contracted or minimum letters given in Book 1.

BOOK No. 3. Teaches Current Capitals constructively and affords Practice upon Words. The introduction and classification of Current Capitals forms a prominent feature of the practical character of these Copy Books.

BOOK No. 4 consists of Sentences in a reduced hand suitable for Ladies' Hand. It is clear, open and attractive to the most conservative. The four primary Books constitute a short course complete in itself, and should a pupil be necessitated to leave school before using the advanced books, he has a good knowledge of penmanship.

BOOK No. 5—This book introduces a method of securing uniform and correct Spacing in each letter and word, by means of ruling upon every copy and page of the book, thus establishing firmly these essential habits. Also, a method of exhibiting the relative proportion of the letters in every copy, by means of an engraved scale, so as to render them self-instructing to the pupil.

BOOKS 6 AND 7, for advanced pupils, embrace the whole subject within a small space.

BOOK No. 8—Forms for boys—Notes, Drafts, Receipts, etc., in a plain business hand, giving a variety of current capitals.

BOOK No. 9.—Finishing book for girls—Notes of Invitation, Answers, Forms, etc., in a neat ladies' hand.

The Engraving and Printing of the copies are executed in the best manner possible and only paper of a superior quality is used in their manufacture.

After careful examination of Beatty's System of Penmanship I consider it preferable to any I have examined and shall introduce it in our schools at once.
D. J. GOGAN, Head Master Model and Public Schools, Port Hope.

I have examined Beatty's System of Penmanship and consider it excellent I shall recommend it in preference to any other with which I am acquainted.
CHAS. CLARKSON, B.A.,
Head Master Brockville Model School.

Beatty's System of Penmanship is just what is required in our public schools, it will meet a want long felt by Canadian teachers. I have introduced the whole series in the Model and Public schools of this place.
W. E. SPROUE,
H. M. Co. Model and Public Schools, Town of Cobourg.

Believing Mr. Beatty's System of Penmanship to be the best I have seen, I shall take great pleasure in introducing it into the schools under my charge at the earliest possible opportunity.
Geo. Moss, Principal St. Marys Public Schools.

I have examined Beatty's System of Penmanship, and think it is in advance of anything I have before seen. Will have it introduced in our schools as soon as possible.
S. HERRICOTT, H. M. P. S. Mitchell.

I have carefully examined Beatty's System of Penmanship and am of opinion that it is in advance of any other system that I have heretofore examined. I would be glad to see it occupy a place in our schools, and shall earnestly recommend its introduction.
W. G. KING, Inspector P. S., Kingston.

After having carefully examined Beatty's Copy-books, I have no hesitation in saying that they are the best I have yet seen. They are graded to suit both rural and town schools, and will supply a want which I have long seen to exist.
JOHN M. MORAN,
P. S. I. South Perth.

Having examined the series of Copy-books by Mr. Beatty, I have great pleasure in stating that in my opinion they are a great improvement on the Payson, Dunton & Scribner series. With one or two changes, which I believe are contemplated, I think they can be made to excel—if not, to at least equal, the best publications on the continent.
H. DICKENSON,
H. M. Model and Public Schools, Stratford.

Beatty's System of Penmanship is an excellent method of teaching that subject. I would recommend its trial in our schools.
THOS. HILLIARD,
P. S. I. Town of Waterloo.

From the Penman's Art Journal: . . . The author has very wisely adopted and combined with his own ideas, all the good features in the best American Copy-books. The result is that the series now before us contains a combination of the best points in the most popular of our series, and is better adapted to all grades of pupils than any of its predecessors. The books are so graded and arranged, and the instructions on the covers so clear and full, that more real practical penmanship may be learned from them in three months than from the ordinary copy-books in a whole year.
