TWO NEW TOMATOES.

THE "ARLINGTON."

Early, Solid, and Enormously Productive Originated by H. Dwight Smith, Esq., of Arlington, Va. and is a cross between the Early Smooth Red and Topsy.

The following certificates will show what is thought of this variety in its native locality.

From L. J. Tuttle, Assistant Treas. and Under Secy.

I find the "Arlington" has in a remarkable degree all the requisites of a perfect Tomato.

From the President's Garden.

The Arlington Tomato, tested under my supervision in the President's garden, was superior to any other kind.

ENGLISH'S GRAPE-SHOT.

A small, very early variety, originated by an amateur, Dr. Thomas Dana English. It is a cross between the red currant tomato and a large hybrid tomato of his own growing.

The Nineteenth Annual Edition of our celebrated Seed Catalogue and Amateur's Guide to the Flower and Kitchen Garden is now ready for distribution, and will be mailed free to our customers of 1872.

WM. PARKS & SON

TO FARMERS AND MARKETMEN.

You want none but the very best of seed, grown from carefully selected seed stock. With the money you have to invest in manure, help and glass you cannot afford to use any other.

N.B.—Call in the Spring and see what onions, cabbages, &c. I set out to grow seed from.
