

and contemplates with admiration this sublime scene by the flickering light of a candle which he holds in his hand, and whose flame he endeavors to protect against the draughts of air. Everything breathes recollection and piety. In bequeathing this picture to the hospital, Hemling had assuredly chosen the best means of expressing his gratitude for the care he had received in it.

THE MIRACLE OF THE 22nd JUNE

OR

THE CURE OF SISTER BERNADETTE

of Watertown, N. Y.

ABOUT the middle of July, we received from Rev. M<sup>r</sup> Hervieux, of Tupper Lake, N. Y., a letter respecting the remarkable cure indicated in our title. Among other things it said: «The Sister is now quite well. I know not whether any body has written to you in connection with this miracle, but please speak of it in your Annals.»

From that time, we have been corresponding with Rev. M<sup>r</sup> Hervieux. He has fully confirmed the first information that he gave us. It therefore seems to us that the time has come to make known this striking proof of St. Anne's goodness. We shall do so by giving all the details that we have received from the surest sources.

It was on the 22nd June of this year that Sister Bernadette, a Nun of the convent of St. Joseph, Watertown, N. Y., was instantly cured at the Shrine of Ste Anne de Beaupré.

On that day, came the pilgrimage from Ogdensburg, N. Y., a pilgrimage admirable for its piety, and beyond contradiction one of the finest and most edifying of the season. Among the 500 pilgrims were several sick persons, Sister Bernadette being of the number.

She is a young nun, twenty five years old. For two years she had suffered from an internal disease which was extremely painful and
