

From the spi - der on the wall, Man may good in - struc - tion take ;

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The middle and bottom staves are a grand staff with a treble and bass clef, also in one sharp. The melody is in the top staff, and the accompaniment is in the grand staff. The lyrics are written below the top staff.

And at re - so - lu - tion's call, Stronger every ef - fort make.

The second system of the musical score also consists of three staves in the same key signature and clef arrangement as the first system. The melody continues in the top staff, and the accompaniment continues in the grand staff. The lyrics are written below the top staff.

An apple falling from the tree
 Woke a Newton's thought profound,
 And the drifting wood at sea
 Proved a Colon's reason' sound:
 Human wisdom naught can teach us,
 Learning, Science, Skill, combined
 Try their wits in vain to reach us
 While we're to our errors blind.