

elsewhere, have suffered from the moving about of the teachers from place to place, and this can only be remedied, it is said, by making the various positions of more value. We trust the Government of Quebec have it in mind to follow the example of Newfoundland, in increasing the subsidy for our elementary schools.

—On account of the various reports we have had to make space for this month, other matter has had to lie over. In the meantime we subjoin among our Current Events the report of the meeting of the Executive Council of the Provincial Association, in reference to the coming Convention.

Current Events.

—Subjoined is to be found the programme of the Annual Convention of the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers, to be held in the McGill Normal School, Montreal, on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th of October next, and the indications, so far, point to a very successful gathering.

On the WEDNESDAY EVENING, previous to the Convention, there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee, in the Normal School, at eight o'clock.

On THURSDAY MORNING, from 10 to 12 a.m., the following is the programme:—Organization, Reports of (1) Executive Committee, (2) Treasurer, (3) Curator, (4) Pension Commissioners, (5) Representative on Protestant Committee, (6) Committee on Canadian History, (7) Committee on Text-Books, (8) Committee on A. A. Examinations, (9) Committee on Examination of Elementary Schools, (10) Committee on distribution of Grants. N.B.—The reports of the above Officers and Committees must be in writing, and cannot be allowed to exceed five minutes each, except by permission of the Executive Committee.

On THURSDAY AFTERNOON, from 2 to 5 p.m., the routine business is to occupy fifteen minutes, when the following items will be attended to:—"Professional training of Teachers," R. J. Hewton, M.A.; "Efficiency of our Elementary Schools," E. A. Dyer, Esq., M.P., W. H. Lambly, Esq. Discussion.

On THURSDAY EVENING, beginning at 8 p.m., the following programme will be carried out:—The President's Address, Rev. E. I. Rexford, B.A.; Address, Wm. Crocket, Esq., M.A., Morrin College, late Superintendent of Education, New Brunswick; Music and Readings.

On FRIDAY MORNING, from 9 to 12 a.m., routine business will again engage the attention of the Convention for fifteen
