

lishers did not give us the benefit of a thumb index, which is exceedingly handy in volumes of this size, naturally alphabetical in arrangement. Again, we think that a considerably greater number of illustrations would have rendered the book more valuable; but altogether, Dr. Foster has given the profession and student population a magnificent volume and one that should have a ready sale.

A Text-Book of Materia Medica, including Laboratory Exercises in the Historic and Chemic Examinations of Drugs. For Pharmaceutic and Medical Schools, and for Home Study. By ROBERT A. HATCHER, Ph.G., M.D., Instructor in Pharmacology in Cornell University Medical School of New York City; and TORALD SOLLMANN, M.D., Assistant Professor in Pharmacology and Materia Medica in the Medical Department of the Western Reserve University of Cleveland. 12mo volume of about 400 pages, illustrated. Philadelphia, New York, London: W. B. Saunders & Co. Canadian agents: J. A. Carveth & Co., Limited, Toronto. 1904 Flexible leather, $2.00 net.

We strongly recommend the students, now entering their winter's studies at Toronto University, to purchase Dr. Hatcher's Materia Medica, as we feel that it will very materially assist them in their laboratory work. The text-book goes fully into laboratory exercises, a method of teaching that is far ahead of the older didactic system, especially applied to materia medica.

Medical Jurisprudence, Insanity and Toxicology. By HENRY C. CHAPMAN, M.D., Professor of Institutes of Medicine and Medical Jurisprudence in the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. Third edition. thoroughly revised, greatly enlarged and entirely reset. Handsome 12mo volume of 329 pages, fully illustrated, including four colored plates. Philadelphia, New York, London: W. B. Saunders & Co. 1903. Canadian agents: J. A. Carveth & Co., Limited. Cloth, $1.75 net.

This work is based on the author's practical experience as Coroner's Physician of the City of Philadelphia for a period of six years. Dr. Chapman's book, therefore, is of unusual value to the medical and legal professions, presenting, as it does, the information gained from active participation in medico-legal cases. This third edition, enlarged by the addition of new matter to the extent of seventy-five pages, has been entirely reset, and it is evident that in its preparation every page has undergone a
