

BARRIE, ONT.—It is proposed to raise $15,000 by debentures for permanent sidewalks.

COOKSHIRE, QUE.—J. Wilkinson wants tenders by May 1st for erection of residence.

ROCKWOOD, ONT.—Harris & Co., Limited, will build a large addition to woolen mill.

MIDLAND, ONT.—The Church of England congregation will build a new parsonage.

PENETANGUISHENE, ONT.—The Presbyterian congregation have decided to build a manse.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—J. W. Luckie has decided to build a large warehouse on Water street.

HINTONBURG, ONT.—An addition to the Methodist church may be built this summer.

THOROLD, ONT.—William Williams wants tenders by May 1st for 500 feet of fire engine hose.

OWEN SOUND, ONT.—The Board of Education have asked for $3,000 for school improvements.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—The Pigeon River Lumber Co. are building thirty residences in town.

ATHENS, ONT.—A by-law to raise $6,000 to erect a new town hall was carried on Monday last.

BURK'S FALLS, ONT.—R. M. Ogilvie, architect, of Toronto, is preparing plans for new school here.

WARWICK, ONT.—William Janes invites tenders up to May 12th for remodeling school building.

INWOOD, ONT.—Brooke township council will issue debentures for $9,000 to build two steel bridges.

SUSSEX, N. B.—Tenders close May 12 for purchase of $30,000 debentures. Particulars from H. A. White.

SANDWICH, ONT.—It is understood that the Bishop Fur Co. will shortly erect a modern factory building.

WINGHAM, ONT.—The Dominion Government is being urged to build a post office and custom house here.

ORILLIA, ONT.—W. H. Croker, architect, has been instructed to prepare plans for a new convent building.

MIDDLETON, N. S.—Tenders close May 15th for erection of armoury here. Plans on application to post-master.

STOUFFVILLE, ONT.—A by-law to raise $5,000 for macadamizing the main street will be voted on May 6th.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—It is understood that a site has been selected for new post office and custom house.

BROCKVILLE, ONT.—Saulmer, Decelles & Altman have made a proposition to the city to build a large brick factory.

EDMONTON, N. W. T.—The Edmonton District Telephone Co. will extend their telephone line from Beaumont to Leduc.

SYDNEY, N. S.—It is said that the Nova Scotia Steel Co. will immediately erect a new machine shop and office building.

ANNAPOLIS, N. S.—F. J. Harris, town clerk, invites bids up to May 19th for purchase of $12,000 electric light debentures.

RENFREW, ONT.—Tenders are wanted by May 3rd for building addition to hospital. Plans by J. D. McNicol, architect.

FORT WILLIAM, ONT.—C. W. Jarvis wants tenders by May 1st for erection of the John McKellar Memorial Hospital.

GLACE BAY, N. S.—C. M. O'Dell, C.E., has recommended that tenders be invited immediately for laying pipes for waterworks system.

BRANDON, MAN.—W. A. Elliott, architect, has prepared plans for brick blocks to be built by Burchill & Howey and J. F. Higginbotham.

WINDSOR, ONT.—The directors of the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway have decided to build a large summer hotel at Rondeau.

PETERBOROUGH, ONT.—American capitalists have purchased the street railway and will extend it to Lakefield and Chemong Park.

ARICHAT, N. S.—Tenders are asked by the Department of Public Works at Ottawa, up to May 15th, for erection of public building here.

NEWMARKET, ONT.—Mr. Jackson, of the Newmarket Era, is about to build a residence, from plans by J. A. Ellis, architect, Toronto.

QUEBEC, QUE.—It is proposed to lay water pipes along Marchmont and Grande Allee, at cost of $45,000.—J. Gallagher, waterworks engineer, desires tenders by May 6th for drainage work.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—The Ham & Nott Mfg. Co. will build a new work shop, machine shop, and addition to engine room, cost $9,000.

HULL, QUE.—A telephone company is being formed to build a telephone system in the county of Ottawa. Particulars from H. A. Fortier, this place.

HALIFAX, N. S.—At a meeting of the directors of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co., held last week, it was decided to extend the works at Trenton, N. S.

UXBRIDGE, ONT.—Tenders will be opened on Thursday next for granolithic sidewalks.—Tenders are asked by Allan Gray up to May 11th for repairs to school house.

TRURO, N. S.—W. D. McCallum wants tenders by May 3rd for erection of brick and stone academy building. Plans by J. C. Dumaresq & Son, architects, Halifax.

ST. THOMAS, ONT.—The Board of Education will build an addition to and remodel the Collegiate Institute, at a cost $15,000. Plans by N. R. Darrach, architect.

LINDSAY, ONT.—G. M. Miller, architect, of Toronto, has prepared plans for library building to be built here.—Plans are to be procured for new eight-room school.

ST. MARY'S ONT.—A by-law to raise $16,000 for extending and improving the waterworks and electric light plants will be submitted to the ratepayers July 7th.—J. A. Humpris, architect, invites tenders up to May 2nd for building school house.

DESERONTO, ONT.—The question of laying granolithic sidewalks is under consideration.—An engineer of the Public Works Department last week examined the proper sites for the railway and traffic bridge over the Bay of Quinte.

GUELPH, ONT.—A committee of the council has been authorized to secure a site for a new library building.—Plans have been prepared for the MacDonald building in connection with the Agricultural College.—W. F. Colwill has submitted sketch plans for proposed library building.

MEDICINE HAT, N. W. T.—Tenders are invited by W. N. Adair, secretary-treasurer of the municipality, up to May 17th, for the following supplies for natural gas plant: Ten thousand feet 4-inch American line pipe; 9,500 feet 3-inch line pipe; 3,500 feet 2½-inch line pipe; 2,500 feet 1-inch and 1,500 feet 1½-inch service pipe; 2 tons of cast iron fittings.

LONDON, ONT.—G. Craddock, architect, wants tenders by May 5th for erection of store on King street.—Herbert Matthews, architect, is calling for tenders for addition to the McCormick Mfg. Co's works on Dundas street, and is preparing plans for alterations to residence on Queens avenue for George T. Brown.—The architect for the new building for Advertiser Printing Co. is H. C. McBride, instead of Moore & Henry, as given in last issue.

COLLINGWOOD, ONT.—Plans have been prepared for new brick factory for Wilson Bros.—Tenders are about to be invited for new library building. The plans, as prepared by W. & W. Stewart, architects, of Hamilton, show a one storey and basement building, of pressed brick, with sandstone trimmings, hot water heating, birch floor, slate roof, granolithic sidewalks to entrances.

SHERBROOKE, ONT.—Engineers have completed the survey of proposed extension of the street railway to Brompton Falls, distance 7 miles, and if not too expensive the work will be proceeded with immediately.—The Sherbrooke Gas & Water Co. are having plans prepared for alterations and additions to power plant, including the building of new dam. Tenders close May 10th for building bulkhead, dam and gates.

OTTAWA, ONT.—F. A. Scott & Son will build a block of stores, corner McLaren and Bank streets.—Representatives of St. Andrew's church have decided to build a new church in the Glebe.—The Department of Railways and Canals invites tenders up to Monday, May 5th, for substructure of bridge at Marlett's crossing, Welland canal.—Tenders are asked by the Department of Public Works up to May 7th for dredging at Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur and Point Edward, and until May 16th for wharf and dredging at Three Rivers, Que.

SAULT STE. MARIE, ONT.—Tenders are asked by T. J. Kennedy for construction of the following sections of the Manitoulin & North Shore Railway: From Meaford to Owen Sound; from Warton to Tobermory Harbor; from White Fish Bay to Canadian Pacific Junction; from Sudbury to Lake Wapnapitae.—All arrangements are said to have been completed by the Algoma Central and C. P. Railways to build a $50,000 union station here, of stone.—Thomas Moore intends building an hotel, corner Queen and Elgin streets.—A residence will be built by S. Sarasohn.

HAMILTON, ONT.—The city council will ask the Grand Trunk Railway Co. to build a bridge over the tracks at Strachan st.—Charles Mills, architect, invites tenders up to May 1st for erection of ten room school on Mary street.—Building permits have been granted as follows: Rev. Thomas Geoghegan, brick dwelling, corner Fairleigh avenue and Ida street, cost $2,000; Canada Preserving Co., brick addition to factory, corner Pine and Pearl streets, cost $1,000; Charles Mills, four brick dwellings, York street, cost $4,000; Thomas Allen, brick dwelling, Napier street, cost $1,400; Thomas Lovejoy, brick cottage, Oak avenue, cost $1,000; F. J. Rastrick & Sons, brick dwelling, corner Hannah and Park streets, cost $3,500; J. H. Larkin, two brick dwellings, Princess street, cost $2,400.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—J. O'Donohue has purchased Burk's livery stable on Main street and will probably build a fine hotel on the site.—C. J. Brown, city clerk, wants tenders by 8.30 p. m. on May 1st for supply of 20,000 feet of waterworks pipe, 44 valves, and other