

Start the Year Right

To start right you must feel right. You can't feel right if your stomach is not right. If you have eaten, not wisely, but too well during the holidays, the stomach feels the strain. It needs rest, and unless it gets that rest the result will be

DYSPEPSIA

Give it the rest it needs. Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and they will digest the food themselves, and bring the stomach back to a condition where it can do its work naturally and well. The whole system will feel the benefit.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets

are fifty cents a box. They are the sure safeguard against discomfort.
