THIS volume is essentially Canadian—the first of the kind ever published—and is brought out to meet an expressed desire for such a work in connection with school holiday gatherings specially, and generally for occasions of a similar nature. It is composed of four parts, viz.:

- PART I.—A TALK WITH TEACHERS.
- PART II.—CANADIAN PATRIOTISM.
- PART III.—UNIVERSAL PATRIOTISM.
- PART IV.—ARBOR DAY.

FROM THE PREFACE.

"The patriotic selections are of two kinds, Canadian and general. The greater number of the Canadian selections appear for the first time for the purpose of recitation. They breathe a genuine Canadian spirit and are, moreover, generally of high literary merit. Many of the other selections have become common property for the purpose of public declamation. They have not, however, lost their value either as exercises in elocution, or as the embodiment of a substantial and stirring patriotic sentiment."

In the large list of notable Canadian poets, from whose works selections are taken, are the following names:

No teacher or pupil in Ontario is obliged to purchase this volume as a textbook for school purposes.

The compiler has no financial interest in the publication. He has given his arduous services solely for the gratification of providing, for those who desire to use it, a collection of literature from the best Canadian sources, which, while it endows and ennobles the intellect, will also develop and cultivate a pure patriotic spirit in Canada's sons and daughters.

MARK TWAIN.

The most dramatic story ever written by America's greatest humorist. Like several of Mark Twain's stories, it has for its scene a steamboat town on the Mississippi River forty years ago. The plot in redoubles a novel and ingenious employment of science in the detection of crime, and the characters are well drawn and their every action is interesting. THE CENTURY will contain
