

New BOOKS.

RECEIVED:

From Thos. Whittaker, 25 Bible House, New York—

COALS FROM THE ALTAR, (First series)—Rev. Jos. Cross, D.D., LL.D., being No. 6 of Whittaker's Library of Church Teaching and Defence. An admirable series of sermons for the Sundays of the Christian year, from 1st Sunday in Advent to Ascension Day. Paper, 50c.

THE LORD'S PRAYER—Eighteen sermons preached in Westminster Abbey by the Ven. Archdeacon Farrar, D.D., F.R.S. Cloth, pp, 279; $1.50. The author's ability as a preacher is too well known to need comment. Though these sermons are described as of the plainest and simplest character, they are couched in beautiful language and the richly flowing periods for which Archdeacon Farrar is famous, and cannot but be read with pleasure. From a Churchly standpoint, however, there is not entire satisfaction.

THE BOOK OF PRAISE for Church, School and Home, compiled by Rev. G. W. Shinn, D.D., and H. B. Day, organist; pp. 272; 35c each; $30 per 100.

The book contains favorite melodies which have been long associated with familiar hymns and melodies equally good fitted to the best of the new hymns. Besides these there is all the other music needed for the rendering of the ordinary and some of the special services, so that it may take the place of Leaflets, etc. The book contains over 200 well selected hymns; a large number of chants; a Communion service, choral service; Morning and Evening Prayer (American) selections from the Psalter, etc. The binding and get up is good, and the low price 35c brings it within the reach of most parishes and missions.

PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS—The satisfaction of human wants in so far as they can be satisfied by labor and material resources, by Grover Pease Osborne. Crown, 8 vo.; cloth, $2.

If you are free from indigestion you need not fear cholera. If you are not free, you are in danger. K. D. C. will free you from both indigestion and cholera.

If you will have the gift of sympathy, you must be content to pay the price; like Christ, you must suffer.

Popular Story of The Church of England.

Showing its Birth, its Progress and its Work for the People, with illustrations.

Price Sixpence, or Bound in Cloth, One Shilling.

The large demand for this "Story" has necessitated the issue of a NEW EDITION. The book has been revised, and the statistics made up to the moment of going to press. In order to make its pages yet more attractive, some excellent views of Cathedrals and Churches have been added, and those who have not yet done so may be glad to distribute it as an antidote to the anti-Church literature which is now being so largely circulated in all parts of the Kingdom, in view of the coming attack upon our Church. Nearly all the Bishops have signified their warm approval of the "Story." The late Archbishop Magee commended it in these words: "It gives in a condensed and popular form one of the best statements of the past history and present work of the Church with which I am acquainted. It seems to me especially suited for distribution amongst our intelligent working classes, who need just such a corrective to the false and misleading statements now so industriously circulated amongst them by the enemies of our Church."

Favorably Reviewed by nearly one hundred newspapers.
