When in London call on The Monetary Times,
Grand Trunk Building, Cockspur Street.

The Sun Life Insurance Company has purchased Knox Church, at the corner of Dorchester and Mansfield Streets, Montreal. The purchase price is $150,000, of which $35,000 is to be paid in cash and the balance in seven years, during which time the company will not take possession.

The Dr. J. A. Slocum Company, Limited, of Toronto, will be wound up and the Trusts and Guarantee Company are interim liquidators. Mr. George Kappele, K.C., will nominate a permanent liquidator. The order to wind up is not to issue until a meeting of creditors has decided whether the liquidator shall act under the assignment of June 5, or under the winding-up act.

Mr. J. L. Routly has been appointed district manager for the London & Lancashire Life & General Assurance Association for the Thunder Bay and Rainy River districts, with headquarters at Fort William. Mr. Routly was formerly advertising manager of the Daily News, Port Arthur. The returns from his office for the first month are very satisfactory. The opening of this branch completes a chain of offices throughout the Dominion for the London & Lancashire Life. The whole country is being thoroughly organized. The company numbers among its representatives some of the most successful underwriters in the country.
