One of the managers of a home for destitute colored children tells a funny story about the way Washington's birthday was celebrated at that institution. She went out there in the afternoon to see how things were going on, and found a youngster, as black as the inside of a coal mine, tied to a bed post with his hands behind him.

"What's that boy tied up so for?" she asked the attendant.

"For lying, ma'am; he is the worst lying nigger I ever saw."

"What's his name?"

"George Washington, ma'am," was the paralyzing reply.—Washington Capitol.
