

It is anticipated that separate working groups will be required for Headquarters Organization, Operations Abroad, Administrative Devolution, Consular/Immigration Implementations, Strategic Planning, and Personnel Issues.

The Corporate Review implementation team will exist for the first year of implementation, with continued work as required by the groups, after that time.