

and South Korea is illegal since they were sent by puppet governments which do not in reality represent Viet-Nam and Korea.

2. The Plenipotentiary Conference, Buenos Aires, 1952, having violated the procedure established by the Convention in force for the revision of the Regulations, has adopted a resolution in accordance with which the illegal decisions of the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference, 1951—reached in violation of Article 47 of the Radio Regulations annexed to the Convention—replace the provisions of these Regulations.

The Delegation of the Roumanian People's Republic, in these circumstances, reserves the right of its Government to accept or not to accept the Radio Regulations, Article 6 of the Convention and other provisions concerning the I.F.R.B.

It also reserves the right not to take into consideration Resolution No. 30 of the Buenos Aires Plenipotentiary Conference.

For Czechoslovakia:

On signing the International Telecommunication Convention, the Delegation of Czechoslovakia makes the following formal statement:

1. The presence of the representatives of the Kuomintang at the Buenos Aires Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union and the signing of the International Telecommunication Convention by the representatives of the Kuomintang on behalf of China are not legal since the only legitimate representatives of China are the representatives designated by the Central People's Government of the Chinese People's Republic.
