

exhibitors of televised movies, to dub more than 100 movies for exhibition on television. Additional authorizations are anticipated.

MARKET ENTRY STRATEGIES

Canadian film and television producers typically go to Mexico for location shooting, with post-production done at home. Thus they are buyers rather than sellers and their usual concerns are with finding qualified suppliers rather than market entry. The Mexican industry associations are a good source of contacts, but contacts in Canada are often the best way to evaluate potential suppliers. The main exception is when the Canadian company takes an equity position in a co-production with a Mexican partner. Téléfilm Canada supports this type of production. The Canadian Embassy in Mexico also has an active cultural promotion program. A small number of Canadian films are distributed for exhibition in Mexico, generally through the large multinational distributors.

KEY CONTACTS

CANADA

Canadian Government

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT)

DFAIT is the Canadian federal government department most directly responsible for trade development. The InfoCentre should be the first contact point for advice on how to start exporting. It provides information on export-related programs and services, acts as an entry point to DFAIT's trade information network, and can provide copies of specialized export publications and market information to interested companies.

*FaxLink is a faxback system which provides summaries on a range of Mexican markets. It must be contacted through your fax machine. Dial from your fax phone and follow the voice prompt instructions.

The Trade and Economic Division of the Embassy of Canada in Mexico can provide vital assistance to Canadians venturing into the Mexican market. The trade commissioners are well-informed about the market and will respond in whatever measures possible to support a Canadian firm's presence in Mexico.

International Trade Centres have been established across the country as a convenient point of contact to support the exporting efforts of Canadian firms. The centres operate under the guidance of DFAIT and all have resident trade commissioners. They help companies determine whether or not they are ready to export, assist firms with market research and planning, provide access to government programs designed to promote exports, and arrange for assistance from the trade commissioners in Ottawa and trade officers abroad. Contact the International Trade Centre nearest you.

World Information Network for Exports (WIN Exports) is a computer-based information system designed by DFAIT to help Canada's trade development officers abroad match foreign needs to Canadian capabilities. It provides users with information on the capabilities, experience and interests of more than 24,000 Canadian exporters. For general information, call (613) 944-4WIN (4946); to register on WIN Exports, call (613) 996-2057, or fax 1-800-667-3802 or (613) 944-1078.

Program for Export Market Development (PEMD)

PEMD is DFAIT's primary export promotion program. It supports a variety of activities to help Canadian companies expand into export markets. PEMD shares up to 50 percent of eligible expenses. Program financial assistance is a repayable contribution, not a grant, and must be approved in advance. For general information, call the InfoCentre at 1-800-267-8376. For applications for assistance through this program, call the International Trade Centre nearest you. In Quebec, PEMD is administered by the 13 regional offices of the Federal Office of Regional Development (FORD Q).
