

Former Yugoslavia

Since March 1992, Canada has contributed one of the largest contingents to the UN forces in the former Yugoslavia. Currently some 1000 Canadian troops serve with the NATO Peace Implementation Force (IFOR) in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina. Canadians also serve with the UN Peace Forces (UNPF) in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as in the UN Military Observer Mission in Prevlaka (UNMOP).

Cambodia

Within the Cambodian Mine Action Centre (CMAC), Canada provides six personnel to train Cambodians in demining techniques and safety standards as well as management and decision-making skills to support de-mining operations.

Haiti

The United Nations Mission In Haiti (UNMIH) was established in June 1993. In March 1995, Canada sent 100 police officers and 450 military personnel to Haiti to help the government sustain a secure and stable environment; to professionalize the Haitian army; and to create a separate police force. Currently, there are 750 Canadians deployed in Haiti.

Guatemala

The United Nations Mission in Guatemala (MINUGUA) checks to see that the Agreement on Human Rights between the Government of Guatemala and the opposing rebel group is carried out. MINUGUA also co-operates with and helps strengthen institutions working for the protection of human rights in the country; and it verifies aspects of the Agreement on Identity and Human Rights of the Indigenous People.
