

Responsibilities of the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires

The Canadian Corps of Commissionaires provides security guard services in the LBP Building and 111 Sussex. They may request the presentation of ID cards. Commissionaires are responsible for:

- controlling reception and access;
- monitoring and responding to the building alarms systems;
- conducting security and fire patrols;
- controlling and escorting visitors to an employee's office after contacting that employee;
- monitoring the movement of material in/out of the LBP Building and 111 Sussex.
