

On motion of Mr. Mackenzie King, it was resolved,—That the Standing Committees of this House shall severally be empowered to examine and inquire into all such matters and things as may be referred to them by the House; and to report from time to time their observations and opinions thereon; with power to send for persons, papers and records.

By leave of the House,—Mr. Mackenzie King, a Member of the King's Privy Council, laid before the House,—Documents and communications dealing with the European crisis between Germany and Czechoslovakia, September, 1938—(English and French editions).

The House then resumed the adjourned Debate on the proposed motion of Mr. Matthews for an Address to His Excellency the Governor General, in reply to his speech at the opening of the Session, and on the proposed motion of Mr. Manion in amendment thereto, and on the proposed motion of Mr. Woodsworth in amendment to the said proposed amendment.

And the Debate still continuing; the said Debate was, on motion of Mr. Heaps, adjourned.

The House then adjourned at 10.55 o'clock, p.m., until Monday next, at 3 o'clock, p.m.

PIERRE F. CASGRAIN,

Speaker.
