

I am convinced that the matter is not entirely forgotten. I think it is worth while. I look forward to the Minister of National Revenue (Mr. Gray) perhaps bringing forward those regulations at a future date. If the hon. member thinks it is a good idea, I am sure with pressure from him, myself and other members, this might become a reality.

Some hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Speaker: Is the House ready for the question?

Some hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Speaker: The question is on the subamendment. All those in favour of the subamendment will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members.

The House divided on the amendment to the amendment (Mr. Burton) which was negatived on the following division:
