

error it is to take our freedom for granted when we learn what tremendous sacrifices these people have made in trying to regain their. I think our Government's plan for Hungarian relief is one of the most promising programs of our immediate future.

Hon. Senators: Hear, hear.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Haig, the debate was adjourned.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 3 p.m.

The Committee on Education and Labor, the Committee on Finance and the Committee on Government Operations and Administration, the Committee on Labor and Human Resources, the Committee on Public Works and Administration, the Committee on Small Business and Consumer Affairs, the Committee on Veterans Affairs, the Committee on the Judiciary, the Committee on the Environment and Public Works, the Committee on the Interior and Natural Resources, the Committee on the Senate Organization and Administration, the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the Executive Branch, the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the States, the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the People, and the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the World.

The Committee on Education and Labor, the Committee on Finance and the Committee on Government Operations and Administration, the Committee on Labor and Human Resources, the Committee on Public Works and Administration, the Committee on Small Business and Consumer Affairs, the Committee on Veterans Affairs, the Committee on the Judiciary, the Committee on the Environment and Public Works, the Committee on the Interior and Natural Resources, the Committee on the Senate Organization and Administration, the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the Executive Branch, the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the States, the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the People, and the Committee on the Senate's Relations with the World.