

May 9th, 1933.

Honourable L. A. Taschereau, K.C., LL.D.,
Premier of Quebec,
Quebec, P. Q.

As you know, on May 25th, McGill University is conferring the honorary degree of LL.D. upon His Eminence Cardinal Villeneuve.

The Convocation procession forms up on the McGill Campus at nine-twenty o'clock a.m. and proceeds to Loew's Theatre, where the Convocation proceedings are held.

I hope that you may be able to attend the Convocation. As an honorary graduate of McGill, there would be a place for you in the procession, and I would be glad if you would do us the honor of taking a seat upon the platform at the Theatre.

At one-fifteen o'clock, at my house, 3450 McTavish Street, I am giving a luncheon to the five recipients of the honorary degree, to meet the Chancellor, Mr. E.W. Beatty and a few others. I hope you can join us.

Will you kindly let me know whether it will be possible for you to come to Convocation and to my luncheon?
