

CONTENTS.

vii

—Builds Fort Frontenac—Sale of liquor to the Indians—Official troubles—Recall—La Barre's appointment—Surrender of Fort Frontenac—Marquis de Denonville—Frontenac's second governorship—Phipp's abortive attempt on Quebec—Treaty of Ryswick—Death of Frontenac. . . . .	66-96
---	-------

CHAPTER VI.

UNDER THE FRENCH REGIME—1699-1763.

De Calliers—Founding of Detroit—Cadillac—Vaudreuil—First mail Montreal to Quebec—Beauharnois—Fall of Louisbourg—Galissoniere—French boundary line drawn west of the Alleghanies—La Jonquiere and Bigot—Sir William Johnson—Marquis Duquesne—Forts in the Ohio valley—George Washington—Vaudreuil Governor-General—War declared 1756—The Conquest of Canada—Articles of capitulation—French posts on the Upper Lakes taken over. . . . .	97-109
---	--------

CHAPTER VII.

THE EARLY FUR TRADE.

The Coureurs de Bois—Cent Associés—Compagnie Occidentale—The Oudette Company—The license system—Annual fair at Montreal—Traffic at Toronto—Radisson and Groseilliers—Radisson's journal—Formation of the Hudson's Bay Company—James Bay—French claims—Lemoyne D'Iberville—Sieur de la Noue—Verandrye—The North-West Company—David Thompson—X. Y. Company unite with the Nor'-Westers—Fort William—Earl Selkirk—His work of colonization—Western troubles—Union of the rival companies—A great past, a hopeful future. . . . .	110-131
---	---------

CHAPTER VIII.

UNITED EMPIRE LOYALISTS.

A bright episode in Ontario's history—Dearth of family papers—Causes of the Revolutionary War—Montcalm's prophecy—Persecution of the
--