day. It will continue to grow and be cherished, and will be an example which will inspire others with the same spirit of love and fraternity. The benevolent features of the Order mark its strongest point. To care for the sick and bury the dead is a motto which the Ancient Order of Hibernians can launch upon with peculiarly its own. The statistics of the Order in this country alone afford an indication of its generous charity in this direction. It amounts to many thousands of dollars every year, and the money value is enhanced to its members by the comforting thought that in the hour of their need and sorrow they have friends who are always true and loyal. Not only to its own members is the spirit of benevolence exhibited, but to all suffering humanity. This has been attested at various times when great public calamities have befallen the Order. It has contributed to churches, schools, orphanages and convents, both here and in Ireland.

No young Irishman should hesitate in becoming enrolled in this grand organization, and every young man with a healthy mind and a pure heart will find that the nearest and dearest to him. All practical Roman Catholic Irishmen of respectable character, between the ages of eighteen and forty years, are eligible for membership. Any further information can be had by writing to any of the members. Division No. 1 meets in Temperance Hall on the second and fourth Monday nights of each month. Visiting Brothers are ever welcome.

SARFIELD BRANCH, No. 28, OTTAWA.

At last regular meeting of the Branch a committee was elected to amend the Branch by-laws, which will be submitted at the next regular meeting. Also a reception committee to make arrangements to receive the delegates at the coming convention. A very interesting programme was gone through, in which songs and recitations held the sway, and which the members of No. 28 thoroughly enjoy on the evenings of their meetings. Arrangements were made for the members to accompany the Holy Communion in a body on Low Sunday in St. Bridget's Church. A hearty vote of thanks was unanimously adopted to the Grand Branch officers for the prompt manner in which they had attended to the papers of any late Brother and paid the funeral and insurance benefits, and the following resolution of condolence was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it having pleased our dear Lord to remove by death Brother P. Stringer. Be it therefore Resolved—That the members of this Branch extend to his widow and family our sincere sympathy in this their time of sad affliction, and we humbly pray that God will comfort them in their time of bereavement.

Resolved—That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the meeting and a copy sent to the family of our deceased Brother and to the G. S. T. for insertion in the official organ.
