Hotels

These

Special arrangements have been made with the following four hotels, whereby World excursionists will be provided with special rates and every courtesy a visitor could desire while in New York. Personal letters of introduction to the manager of the hotel desired are provided at time tickets are purchased. The hotels are situated as follows:

HOTEL ARLINGTON 18-20 West 25th Street.

SHERMAN SQUARE HOTEL On Broadway, From 70th to 71st

HOTEL BRISTOL 122 and 124 West 49th Street, Between Broadway and Sixth Avenue.

103-105 Waverly Place, One Block West of Fifth Avenue and Washington Arch.

In a recent letter to The World, the president and manager of one of the above hotels says: "August is a very crowded month in New York. It is the month when a greater number of strangers are in the city than any other time, and is the most pleasant time of the year to visit, as all the theatres will be started, roof gardens in full swing, and the summer resorts at their height. I should like to take care of your people, and feel sure that your excursion this year will be very successful, as you are sending them out at a good time. I may state to you that any of your people who appear at our houses with letters of introduction from you will receive precedence over all others, except where reservations ha been made in ad-
