PREMIER WILL NOT TALK ON FUTURE PROHIBITION

Ontario Alliance Executive Held Hurried Meeting to Extend Congratulations and Prepare for a Convention -- Mr. Ross Will Be Waited on at an Early Date for a Pledge.

The World asked Premier Ross what he had to say regarding the derision of the Privy Council. "I would rather, not say anything at the present time," the Premier replied, deliberately. "No, I think I shall not say anything just now." "Will you not express an opinion?" the reporter urged.

"Not just now," was the reply. A special meeting of the Ontario Alliance Executive was summoned by telephone yesterday afternoon, in consequence of the news of the Manitoba decision. Dr. J. J. Maclaren presided. After exchanging congratulations, it was decided to have a convention called immediately in North York, Hon. E. J. Davis' constituency, and Organizer John A. Nicholls will spend the next few days in North York, making the necessary arrangements.

The executive also decided to arrange for a large, representative and influential prohibition convention to meet Premier Ross and his colleagues at the Parliament Buildings at an early date, to request that he implement his pledge by giving assurances of immediate prohibitory legislation.

It was stated on excellent authority last evening that W. W. Buchanan of the Royal Templars will return to Ontario in March and enter into the provincial election. His nomination for an Ontario constituency for the local elections is a probability under consideration by leading members of the alliance executive and Royal Templar order.

Privy Council Declares the Manitoba Legislature Had Power to Pass the Act, But if It Does Not Become a Dead Letter Will Interfere With Business Operations.

London, Nov. 22-To-day the Privy Council gave judgment in the Manitoba liquor case. Their Lordships declared that the Legislative Assembly of the province has jurisdiction to enact the Liquor Act. Regarding the subsidiary questions, the principles of which were whe ther the Manitoba liquor manufacturers licensed by the Dominion government and also the Hudson Bay Company were subject to the Manitoba Act, Their Lordships said no useful answer could be given. Their Lordships describe the provisions of the Act as extremely stringent, and add that, unless the Act becomes a dead letter, it must interfere with the revenue of the Dominion, with licensed traders in Manitoba and, indirectly, with business operations beyond the limits of the province. No costs were given. Lord Macnaghten delivered the judgment, in which the law lords said that, altho questions submitted to the Court of King's Bench in Manitoba numbered 11, only one question was considered in the Court of King's , and Their Lordships had considered only one question in the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. That question was: Had the Manitoba Legislature power to pass the Act? If not, in what particular respect has the Legislature exceeded its powers?
