Drunken Idlers

Who Live on Charity and Disgrace the City.

Two Go Down for 20 Days -One Remandca-A Candidate for the Asylum.

The city seems at present to have an abundance of idlers, who live on charity, and do little else but drink. Magistrate Parke intends to punish these characters severely every chance he gets, as they are a burden and a disgrace to the city. John Roger, a drunk, has been putting up at the Salvation Army Hotel for the past few days. He said he walked from Hamilton, stopping one day at Brantford, and another day at Woodstock. "If you let me go," pleaded Rogers, "Til get right out of town."

"No; I won't let you go. I'll send you down," replied the magistrate; "$5 or twenty days."
Geo. Wilson, another drunk, was also a boarder at the Salvation Shelter, but was elected Saturday night. He was charged by James McQuillan with stealing a watch from him in Jerry McDonaid's hotel on Saturday evening. He was remanded for a week, although he denied taking the watch. Frank Grandville, a middle-aged man, with a very intelligent appearance, said he had been at work west of Chatham for Charles Crow. He wanted to go to Biddulph, and promised to get out of town in ten minimum of his ability and character at the head of affairs. #### MADAME ALBANI

To Appear at the Grand on Friday

Evening Next. Madame Albani and her company are to appear at the Grand Opera House on the evening of Friday next, and the event is exciting the interest of our music-loving citizens, as evidenced by the large list of subscribers who were on hand to secure seats when the plan was opened for their benefit. A weli-known critic, in speaking of the appearance of this artiste in New York during the present season, with a most appreciative notice, showing that Madame Albani has not only retained her personal power to please, but has surrounded herself with a thoroughly competent company for the present tour. In the course of his sulogium he says: "The brillancy of her voice, the wonderful, bira-like character of her trills, the staccato runs that dropped from her lips clear and delicate as crystal, the power and pathos in the garden scene with Faust, are fresh and captivat-It was in the two acts from st," the garden and prison scenes, that her audience saw her as she should be seen, as actress and singer. "The King of Thule," the "Jewel Song," the great duet and the famous quartet, all gave testimony to the verdict long since rendered by the greatest musical audiences in the world. The artists in support of Madame Albani were all excellent. Mr. Lempriere Pringle has a fine bass voice, which was heard to admirable advantage in the 'Toreador's Song,' from 'Carmen,' and in his encore the old German drinking song. Mr. Braxton Smith has a pleasant, sympa-thetic tenor, which was heard to especial advantage in 'Salve Dinovah.' Miss Beverley Robinson has an agreeable voice, and Miss Beatrice Langley is a violinist of great merit. Besides her own numbers in the concert part of the programme she added greatly to the Faust performance by her assistance of Senor Seppili in the accompaniments."

The plan will be opened to the general public who failed to place their names on the lists of subscribers on Wadnesday morning, and there is every reason to suppose that there will be a rush.

SMOKING THE DEAD.

Various Methods of Disposing of Late Lamented Relatives in the French Congo.

The natives of the French Congo have different methods of burial. A dead slave is simply thrown into the bush as food for hyenas and other wild beasts. There was a place of this kind within a quarter of a mile of the old mansion house near Ma-yumba, and the first missionaries collected the bones and buried them. The body of a convicted criminal, who is kiled by the witch doctor with sasswood, is also thrown away. Common persons are buried the day after death in one of the huts of the town. A hole about eight inches deep is dug and lined with leaves. Then a mat about five feet long and three to four feet wide is put in, and the body, after being wrapped in five yards of cotton cloth, is placed on it and covered with another mat, more leaves, and the soil that has been taken from the excavation. This bu-rial is only temporary, until the witch is found who caused the death. This takes days or weeks, the time depending largely upon the pay the doctor receives. If the pay is large, he takes a longer time, because there will be plenty of rum for him, and this is all he cares for. If the relatives are poor, the doctor soon finds the witch, and then the body of the dead man is

A loaded revolver was found the natives seem able to stand any amount of all kinds of offensiveness, it does not matter to them at all how much time clapses before the burial takes place. Many yards of cloth are wound around the body, sometimes as much as 60 yards or more, and after this the body is placed in a box as large as possible. One that we fur-nished for Mongovy Gernando meas-ured 7 feet long by 2 1-2 feet wide and 3 feet deep. > It is a strange fact that the natives never put rum into a coffin, even if they have a great deal of it in their possession. Funerals are very noisy affairs. Dancing, drinking and shooting are the order of the day. The shooting is done at sunrise and sunset, to keep the spirit of the dead from returning. The natives believe in a spirit world. The dead have a town just like the living, and live in the same manner, marry and are given in marriage, buy and sell, make war with one another—in fact, carry on all the vocations of life in their world, which is invisible. The cloth and other things are > placed in the coffin to give the rich a start in the spirit world. The natives say that there are ghosts, and for this reason they are great cow-ards after dark. It has often happened that the natives have robbed the graves of white people, to carry away parts of the body, in most cases the head, because they believe there is great merit in this, and that any chief who has a white man's head in his possession can withstand all foes. These things do not happen quite so often now, because there are more Europeans there, and the graveyards are more carefully protected

WOULD YOU BE BEAUTIFUL? The idea of beauty varies greatly among different nations. In Northwestern America the Indian girl's most bitter insult is to tell another that "Your mother was too lazy to flatten your head." Those famous beauties, the Circassian women, have glowing red hair, with faces so long and narrow that their heads seem t have been squeezed between two boards and flattened; noses out of proportion, and complexions of a dull, leaden hue. For years Dr. Radway has been laboring in the vineyard of medical science in improving the process of obtaining the active properties from medicinal substances without heat. This great desideratum he has successfully accomplished, so that every ingredient used in Redway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent and the Ready Relief and Radway's Pills are the pure, unadulterated, active properties. In Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent one teaspoonful contains more of the pure curative principle of Sarsaparilla than will be found in a quart bottle of the weak decoctions of the advertised Sarsaparillas.

In Tumors, Nodes, Hard Lumps and Syphiloid Ulcers; in Dropsy, in Venereal Sore Throat, Ulcers, and in Tubercles of the Lungs; in Gout, Rheumatism, Rickets; in Mercurial Deposits—it is in these terrible forms of disease, where the human body has become a complete wreck, and where every hour of existence is a torture, wherein this great remedy challenges the astonishment and admiration of the sick. It is in such cases, where all the pleasures of existence appear cut off from the unfortunate, and by its wonderful, almost supernatural agency it restores the hopeless to new life and new existence, where this great remedy stands alone in its might and power.

TUMOR CURED.

Dr. Radway, New York—Dear Sir: For the encouragement of others in similar circumstances to what I have been, I think it right for me to return my heartfelt thanks to you for the benefit I have received from the use of the Radway medicines. I had been afflicted over six years with tumor in the abdomen. Had been to six of the best doctors I could hear of in Iowa. They all told me the same story, that my trouble was out of the reach of medicine, and that it would in time kill me. I happened to see in your Almanac about tumors being cured. I immediately, as a last resort, resolved to try your treatment. To my great surprise I soon experienced good effects, and with only using three bottles of the Resolvent, one of the Ready Relief, and by continuing on with the Pills longer, I was completely cured. I was so enlarged that I was 4 feet 2 inches around, while now I measure 21 feet around. Before using your medicine I had not laid down in six months. Now, if this sketch will be of any benefit to suffering humanity, I am willing to have it published. Yours with respects.
